Life's Race

by Jack Healey

Where has all the time gone?
Where has my life been spent?
Was I busy with important things?
Did I make my time here count?

Is there anything I've missed Lord?
Is there time to do some more?
Can I be a better neighbor?
Am I worthy as a friend?

Has my life work made a difference?
Did I help when there was need?
Is there more to do that's meant for me?
Will You help me stay the course?

You know the hunger in my heart.
You know I care so deeply.
Please lead me in my daily trek.
Make me a beacon of Your love.
