Ayubowan

Wish you long life

The traditional greeting
Of the Sri Lankans.

Sri Lanka a stunning unbelievable experience on the first visit and a place you want to come back over and over again and always something new to see and experience.

A must at least once in your life.

A blend of tropical splendour and a rich cultural heritage is known to the world as the "pearl" of the Indian Ocean. A recorded history of over 3000 years and the remains of ruined cities, large man-made lakes of a great civilisation has fascinated all visitors.

Its lustrous beauty stems from the lush green vegetation of the scenic hill country and low country pastures, tropical forests and fascinating wildlife sanctuaries to architectural wonders, rock fortresses, ancient relics and colourful festivals which mirror its majestic past that still lives in the hearts of its people.

Bordering this nature's paradise of 25000 sq. miles are the beautiful palms, shading sand washed beaches that watch fishermen in their sailboats silhouetted against a mackerel sky, lit in vibrant colours as the dawns in the east and the sun sets into the ocean on the west.

Anuradhapura

The sacred Sri Maha Bodhi, the oldest religiously authenticated tree in the world is the most venerated temple here. The recorded history of this kingdom dates back to the 5th Century B.C. The Buddhist temples remain, all these years, well preserved showing the devotion of the Buddhists.

Polonnaruwa

A city that was developed in the 3rd Century B.C. became the most fascinating ruined city in Sri Lanka. This wonderful city was destroyed by the invasion of the Cholas. The remains of this magnificent city which baffles many visitors speaks for itself the nature of the ancient people of our country.

The ruins of the ancient hospital where surgical instruments were unearthed during recent excavations, shows how advanced the people of Sri Lanka were 2000 years ago.

Sigiriya

Will it be declared the 8th Wonder of this world? A question asked by all visitors to this breathtaking citadel. A palace built on a rock with an entrance through a gigantic lions mouth. The parks, the paintings make you wonder if it is a world of its own. The world famous frescoes on the walls of this rock which has been exposed to all types of weather and yet magnificent makes one wonder about the knowledge and expertise of the ancient people of Sri Lanka.

Would you like to enjoy your holiday without the hazel of arranging hotels, arranging transport, wasting time for entrance tickets, looking for the correct way to go ect.? Then let the specialists and experts do the job. Just relax and enjoy your holiday.
