

48. Philoktetes bitten by the snake, Attic red-figure stamnos, about 450 BC, by Hermonax, Paris, Louvre.

97. Philoktetes on Lemnos, Attic red-figure lekythos, about 430 BC, by a painter near the Eretria Painter, New York, Metropolitan Museum (Fletcher Fund).

40. Herakles sacrifices to Chryse assisted by Philoktetes and another youth, fragments of an Attic red-figure bell krater, about 430 BC, by the Painter of London E 494, London, British Museum.

Attic red-figure psykter. Herakles on his funeral pyre. Herakles, lying on his lion-skin on top of his pyre, hands his quiver to Philoktetes, whose role in the Trojan war will be critical because of it. c. 460