

NEW JOINT VENTURE OPPORTUNITY

You must want to make money.

If this is you.

Read on.

Retired marketer seeks an enthusiastic Joint Venture Partner.

You need to bring a good attitude with you, and want to make money, as much as you can, as fast as you can.

You will be in charge of a NEW blog. I will provide the content.

You will be the Admin, and do all the technical stuff. If you have WordPress or other Blogging software experience, let's talk. You will need two hours a day for the next year.

Before you get too excited, look at the topic. You may lose interest, and it may not be for you. Fair enough, let's not waste each other's time.

The blog will be about MANIFESTATION. Things like THE SECRET. Think and Grow Rich. Metaphysics.

It is about making one's dreams a reality.

It is about getting RESULTS.

It is about APPLYING all the discoveries of the mind and our ability to get ideas, and make them manifest for the world to see.

Some think this is nonsense. Some think of it as "woo-woo" or magical thinking. Others think it is for lazy people who won't work for what they want.

IF you are one of the above, quit reading and have a nice day.

Meet your new JV Partner.

Hi there. I am Gordon Jay Alexander. I am retired. I've been online for 30 years and along with another JV Partner, Dien Rice PhD, we've operated a business forum for 20 years. It is <https://www.sowpub.com>

Seeds of Wisdom Forum. Where we plant seeds of wisdom for harvests of happiness.

I've written or co-authored over 75 reports, folios, books, courses, plans and HOTSHEETS. I have tens of thousands of forum/blog posts going back almost 30 years.

Most of my online career has focused on BUSINESS. I've been a business owner, and worked as a Creative marketing Professional for some very large, 100 million dollar a year companies.

You can find out all you want about me, most of the bio is at SowPub, but I'm not doing this to talk all about me.

I want to know about you.

See, I haven't really written a lot about one of my passions, which is the study of Metaphysics and MANIFESTATION. I'm not a Johnny come lately to this subject.

I began my studies in 1960. A long time before any books about THE SECRET or modern manifestation concepts came on the scene.

Now that I am retired, I want to share 50 years of lessons from the trenches of life. I am currently working with my children on some TV concepts, book ideas and writing some screenplays.

So I am happy and busy.

But, I have a lot of information just sitting around, on my desk, in my brain, and it wants to come out.

I work from one idea: RESULTS.

I want to help people get the results they desire.

Starting with YOU.

Which is why I want someone who wants to make money. It isn't the only type of manifesting to do in this world, but it is the most tangible and measurable. You know if you have results when you have the money in your pocket.

NOW, I don't want money grubbers. Or those who think money is the SOLUTION to all their problems. But it is a clear way to measure your journey.

In 1993 I was given something. By a higher power. It is called the Square One Workshops. They have been posted at SowPub.com since the beginning. But I have never taught them.

I haven't focused on them. And they will be a big part of the new venture. I will be making videos, doing YouTube and maybe even some Social Media. If you like all that, then maybe we'll be a good fit.

I won't know until we talk.

MY plan looks something like this:

120 days of CONTENT made before we go live.

30 day soft open, beta testing.

30 day Grand Opening.

Continue and adjust.

Pretty simple plan actually.

What I am seeking is also seeking me (or an opportunity like what I have to offer), and the most important thing is...

DESIRE. And a good work ethic.

We have a lot to do. And when we open our doors, I expect to have a complete family of products to offer to our readers.

I work very fast. I need someone who is quick too. Engineer types, those who have to analyze and ponder will not be a good fit.

I believe in ACTION and ADJUSTMENT not wait until it is perfect.

IF you have any interest, send me an email. I'll reply ASAP, and I don't use autoreponders or have anything pre written, each person will be asked different questions.

One think I want to know is how familiar are you with the subject? Have you read any books, or what do you know about it?

You might want to include a list of books you've read or people you might know of, modern and ancient.

YOU will have the control over the web site, must be able to keep the blog up, deal with comments, and get it organized. I can help, but prefer you have some experience in web sites, that isn't too much to ask, is it?

My email is gjabiz@yahoo.com

Put JOINT VENTURE in the subject header, so I'll be sure to see it.

If you have questions, ask them via email. I'll get back quickly to you.

Hope one of you reading this is seeking something new, exciting and with big potential. If you, send your email now.
