

Shadow of the Wind has a professional cast of six, from the Lakota, Pueblo, Cheyenne, Dine', Turtle Mountain Chippewa, Ute, German, Choctaw, and Blackfeet Nations.

Autumn Morning Star, the producer and writer of this show, is a multi-talented storyteller and illusionist. She is one of fifty outstanding American Indians honored by the Smithsonian Institute's National Museum of the American Indian for her culturally rich show.

Clients include:

Mystic Lake Casino;
The Tropicana - Las Vegas;
The Smithsonian Institute's National Museum of the American Indian; Futures for Children; St. Jude Hospital; The Dalhalla Concert Hall - Rättvik Sweden; New York Magic Symposium - Tokyo; National Endowment for the Arts; Polynesian Cultural Center -
Hawaii; Blackfeet Nation - Montana; Tennessee Band of Choctaws; Navajo Nation;
Amerika Haus - Nürnberg, Germany; Milwaukee Indian Summer Festival; Johnson
O'Malley Conference; Hard Rock
Café - Tokyo; and many more!

Shadow of the Wind

For booking information
contact:
Events Manager

mgr@magicmorningstar.com

Toll free: 1-800-889-6041
www.magicmorningstar.com

The Storyteller
came down from the mountain
and spoke in whispers
of secrets she called

Autumn Morning Star presents
her enchanting new show
Shadow of the Wind

to rave reviews across America, Europe and Asia!
This award-winning show is a beautiful series of short vignettes, laced together with mesmerizing stories. Transport your audience to a magical place where they still believe in the impossible with Shadow of the Wind!

"There has been
nothing like this onstage since the hit Broadway
musical 'The Magic Show' with Doug Henning."
Lamont Ream
Master Magician

"Beautiful!
You make
magic look like magic!"
Suzanne
Somers

"Ms. Morning Star
is respected for her performances that are presented with American Indian
dignity."
Ben Sherman
Western American Indian Chamber

"What an Evening! What a performance!
What a show! It was a real pleasure to watch the audience react with such rollicking laughter and genuine feeling!"
Robert Pierce - Director AISES

"HYSTERICALLY FUNNY
HEARTBREAKING
JUBILANT!"

"Autumn Morning Star captivates her audience by weaving the spirit of American Indian culture with the mystery of illusion."
The Boulder Weekly

IMAGINE Spellbinding American Indian legends silhouetted against ancient dances and the delicate whispers of the cedar flute!
ENVISION Riveting vignettes that are flawlessly blended with rollicking comedy, touching love stories,
and the magic of illusion.
DREAM Of an extraordinary adventure that transcends cultural boundaries to embrace the impossible!

"I have never seen
anything
like it!"
Julian
Lennon

"I am totally blown away! I always say: 'You
gotta believe in magic.' But how did you DO that?"
Jon Bon Jovi

"I really
loved your show! You can't help
but charm
everyone!
Goldie
Hawn