"Adopted"

Before you began to form me in my mother's womb,
you loved me,
but from the moment I was conceived, I hated you.
I was a rebel, independent,
but you were patient with me.
Your son came and invited me over,
but in my hate I refused.
So I killed him,
But he came to life again.

With His blood you forgave me,
you changed me,
you adopted me.
And now I am yours forever.
