

Saracek's Shield +2 Holy Large Shield of Blinding

This large steel shield is of master quality and is polished to a fine sheen. It was used by Saracek until he swore allegiance to Orcus and bears an image of the sun. Etched into the inner side of the leather arm band are the words, "albor stadeth wo" in Suloise. The words means "Fight Defend Me."

The shield provides a +2 enhancement bonus to armor class against any opponent. When wielded by a good creature, the enhancement bonus increases to +3 against evil opponents. The shield bestows 1 negative level on any evil creature attempting to use it. The level loss lasts until the shield is no longer wielded and cannot be overcome in any way.

Twice per day the wielder can say the words, "albor stadeth wo" and the shield will flash a brilliant light. All within 20 feet except the wielder must make a Reflex saving throw (DC 14) or be blinded for 1d4 rounds.

Armor Bonus: +2, Enhancement Bonus: +2
Armor Check Penalty: -1, Weight: 15 lbs.
Arcane Spell Failure: 15%
Market Price: 25,000 gp
Radiates: Abjuration (faint), Evocation (faint)