Title: Thomas Crosby and Emma Crosby FondsDates of Creation: 1862-1927*Physical description: 50 cm of textual records, 368 photographs, 4 sketches*Biographical sketch:

Rev. Thomas Crosby was born in Pickering, Yorkshire, England in 1840 and in 1856 came to Canada with his parents, the family settling near Woodstock, Upper Canada. He left Woodstock in 1862, landed in Victoria in the same year and was sent to Nanaimo to take charge of an Indian school. After travelling extensively on the B.C. coast, he took up work in the Chilliwack area in 1869. In 1871 he was ordained a minister in the Methodist Church of Canada and obtained a furlough in 1873 to travel to Ontario and married Emma Jane Douse from Barrie, Ontario, on April 30, 1874.

They travelled to Port Simpson in 1874, which Rev. Crosby used as a base of operations for 23 years of missionary work in the region. The work required much travel and he received a missionary ship, called the Glad Tidings, to assist him in his work in 1889. Thomas and Emma Crosby moved to Victoria in 1897 as he began a term as President of the British Columbia Methodist Conference. After his term was completed he moved to Sardis, the scene of his earlier work. He was superannuated in 1907 and moved to New Westminster. In failing health, he moved to Vancouver and passed away in 1914.

Scope and Content:

The fonds consists of the incoming and outgoing correspondence of Rev. Thomas Crosby and his wife, Emma Douse Crosby, manuscripts, documents, printed material, photographs, and sketches pertaining to missionary work and family life. The correspondence includes letters written and received by Rev. Crosby on behalf of the Port Simpson people relating to land issues and letters written by Emma Crosby to her mother during her early years at Port Simpson. The photographs include activities at Port Simpson.

Source of supplied title proper:

Title based on contents of fonds.

Immediate source of acquisition:
