Wires From West Bring Greetings To Bride and Groom

Harrietsville—Doris Gertrude Crosby, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crosby, Crampton and Gordon Taylor of Harrietsville, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor, were united in marriage last Wednesday afternoon at the United Church parsonage at Avon. Rev. Lloyd Coates performed the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a street length dress of blue lattice nylon over taffeta, a blue net stole, white hat and accessories and a corsage of Coral Fashion roses.

Her attendant, Mrs. Wilbert Kerr, of Harrietsville, wore a dress of pink nylon over taffeta, white hat and accessories and a corsage of Queen Elizabeth roses. Wilbert Kerr was the groomsman.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Crampton. The guests were received by Mrs. Crosby who wore a navy blue ensemble and a corsage of Better Time roses. At the reception a delicious dinner was served by the bride's brothers. The bride's table was centred with the wedding cake and decorated with roses and candelabra. During the dinner telegrams were received from the groom's two brothers, Norman and Fred Taylor, in Western Canada, and his sister, Mrs. Johnson of Ingersoll, who is visiting in the West.

For a wedding trip to Toronto, the bride chose a smart navy blue bengaline ensemble. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will reside in Harrietsville.

Guests were present from London, Woodstock, Avon, Dorchester, Ingersoll, Crampton and Harrietsville.
