

CROSBY-ROBERTS
WEDDING AT SALFORD The United Church, beautifully decorated with gladioli and asters, in lovely autumn shades, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, September 21st, at two o'clock, when Marjorie Agnes, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.C.
Roberts, was united in marriage to John William Crosby, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crosby of Crampton. The wedding party entered the church to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus", played by Miss Doris Crosby, sister of the bridegroom. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in her mother's wedding gown of white silk and floor-length bridal veil.
She carried a bouquet of Bettertime roses. Miss Marion Roberts, only sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, was lovely in a floor length frock of orchid organza, trimmed with black ribbon velvet, a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.
Delbert Crosby, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the ushers were Will Roberts, brother of the bride, and Gordon Dyer of Woodstock. The interesting double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R.B. Cumming, pastor of the church.
During the signing of the register, Miss Clara Peck sang, "All Joy Be Thine". Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the school room, which was very attractive with decorations of gladioli asters and forget-me-nots. The guests were received by Mrs. Roberts, mother of the bride, who was gowned in navy blue crepe and a corsage of Talisman roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Crosby, mother of the bridegroom, who wore Talisman roses on her lovely gown of grape-rose with accessories to harmonize. Girls of the Sunday School class of which the bride was a member served a dainty repast, the bride's table being centred with the wedding cake and appointments. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Crosby left for a trip through Northern Ontario.
