

Homegoing Celebration

for

DEACON ANDREW CAUSEY

"I HAVE FOUGHT A GOOD FIGHT, I HAVE FINISHED MY COURSE, I KEPT THE FAITH."

II Timothy 4:7

Homegoing Services Held:

PASEO BAPTIST CHURCH

2501 PASEO Blvd - KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2002

11:00 A.M. HOUR

REVEREND CHARLES J. BRISCOE, OFFICIATING

Words of Reflection

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee, because he trusteth in thee.

~ Isaiah 26:3

Deacon Andrew Causey was born April 20, 1919, the only child of Ora Lee Culver Causey and Daniel Causey in Natchez, Mississippi. Both parents, one son, two daughters, one granddaughter and his loving wife, Jean Causey all preceded him in death.

Mr. Causey accepted Christ into his life at an early age and purposed Him as Lord and Savior. His childhood was spent in Natchez and Meadville, Mississippi, where he received his early education. His formal education was obtained from Alcorn State in Mississippi.

Deacon Causey served his country in World War II. As a young man, Mr. Causey moved to Kansas City, Missouri to attend the Trade School and became a very experienced auto mechanic.

He soon met and married Jean Causey and to this union God increased Andrew's status from only child to father of four sons and four daughters. Deacon Causey enjoyed his large family and worked several jobs to provide for and be supportive of immediate and extended family members. Many friends and neighbors entrusted their vehicles to Deacon Causey for expert and trustworthy workmanship. He was employed by the Armour Packing House until it closed. He returned to school to update his auto mechanic skills and began working as an auto mechanic for the City of Kansas City, Missouri and retired in 1984 with honors as a supervisor in one of their largest shops. In retirement, he liked to fish and take short driving trips, participate in mission functions, with his spouse and friends, and was active in his neighborhood club, until failing health would not permit.

Deacon Causey was an active member of Paseo Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Charles J. Briscoe, where he served his Lord as a deacon. With his loving wife, he served in the mission, as a Sunday school teacher, and was one of the original new members class instructors. They loved their church and was faithful to their missionary and stewardship service, even in failing health.

To cherish his loving memory are his sons, Matthew Beavers (Ollie) and LeeWall K. Beavers (Lorraine) both of Kansas City, Missouri; Carter J. Beavers (Sarah) of Camden, Arkansas; two daughters, Orera LaDean Causey and Melanie R. Jones (Clifford) both of Kansas City, Missouri; two very special cousins, Allie Mae Moncrief and James Earl Diggs (Fannie) both of Brookhaven, Mississippi; two very special friends, Aubrey Irving and Deacon Richard Roberts, his weekly bible study partner; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
