

Short Story Writing (Narratives).

Look at the text and answer the following questions:

1. First copy the narrative arch off the whiteboard.
2. Why did the main character in the story get embarrassed by her Dad?
3. Describe the main character. How does the writer show what her personality is like?
4. Describe the part of the story where the suspense starts to build.
What is the reader waiting to see?

Now use the text to fill out the following table. (Then paste this worksheet into your book).

Characters	Setting	Conflict	Climax	Resolution

Finish Question 5 and 6 for Homework.

5. Make up the plot of a story about a different embarrassing moment.
6. (Remember the plot of a story is just the brief outline of what happens in a story).
Draw or find a funny picture that could illustrate your story.

