

THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 2011

THE VOICE OF THE VALLEY SINCE 1909

102ND YEAR 14TH WEEK

75¢

WEATHER THIS WEEK

Forecast page A3

INSIDE

LOCAL RESTAURANT HAPPY TO BE HERE

See page A10.

VICTOR MAN SURVIVES AVALANCHE

See page A9.

WHAT'S GOING ON?

See our arts and entertainment roundup on page B9.

INDEX

Letters	A4
Valley Views	A5
Community News	A8
Calendar	B10
Puzzle	B10
Classifieds	B13
Service Directory	A11
Legals	B16

find us on the web @

TETONVALLEYNEWS.NET

TVN Photos/Ken Levy

Teton County firefighters battle a house fire on 7000 S. Wednesday morning. Mike Hoyle, Teton County Fire chief, said the home was under construction at the time of the blaze. The fire was under investigation at press time, but may have involved a propane tank, according to Valee Wells, Teton County Sheriff's dispatch supervisor.

Fire destroys building near Victor

Ken Levy
TVN Staff

Fire destroyed a home on 7000 South near Victor Wednesday morning.

Initial calls regarding the blaze reported a propane tank fire, according to Valee Wells, Teton County Sheriff's dispatch supervisor. The first call came in at 9:18 a.m.

Teton County Fire Department firefighters arrived to find the house fully engulfed in flames. Mike Hoyle, Teton County Fire chief, said the home was under construction at the time of the blaze.

"Looks like they'll have to start over," he said.

The fire was under investigation as of press time. No injuries were reported, and property damage assessments weren't available as this went to press.

To contact Ken Levy email
reporter3@tetonvalleynews.net.

