October ^{the} 13 1862

My dearly be loved Wife it is with a triold mind that I take my pen in hand to in form you that I am well at presant and hoping that thras few lines may find you in beter health than when you writen your first leter for I was sor row to hear that you was so bad with a pane in your side when you writen I have tride to get a furlow but I lood not get one and I did not like it for they give one to Jacob watson but they said that he or ied before he got a furlow and then he got one for six or seven days but I think that I will get one soon for I in tend to go as soon as I can but dont fret after me but try to be com posed in your
