

Strange World (Track 03 on "The History of Minas Tirith")

This world I'm living in is very strange to me
But I don't try to understand it I just let things be
I just try to live my own life that's the secret key
After all who am I and why should people listen to me
Listen to me

I'm just a lonely man stuck in a lonely town
With all these people here it seems like friends would come around
But I'm left loveless and lifeless without the friends I need
Why doesn't someone come running when I say please help me
Please help me
Please help me
Please help me
