

Jahdiel

Origin: Biblical
Meaning: The unity, or sharpness, or revenge, of God.

Your first name of Jahdiel gives you the desire for responsibility and takes you into practical pursuits.

You would excel in work of a technical nature where concentration and attention to detail are important. Whatever you undertake, you have the patience and determination to do well.

You feel a sense of security in positions of responsibility where progress is made through systematic, step-by-step procedures.

However, you lack vision and you could become too involved in technical details, system, and routine. You do not readily adjust to changes in your routine.

Noelani

Origin: Hawaiian
Meaning: *Mist of heaven
Beautiful girl
from heaven*

The name of Noelani has given you an appreciation for many beautiful and refined aspects of life--music and art, literature, drama--and the outdoors, where you find much peace and relaxation, but it creates a far too sensitive nature. You sense and feel much that you do not understand, and sometimes you are alarmed at your thoughts and wonder about their origin. You rarely experience the tranquility that comes with stability of thinking or emotional control.

Harris

Your name of Harris creates individuality, independence, self-confidence, initiative, and an inclination to physical activity. You are not inclined to merge your opinions and viewpoints with others, to accept compromise, or to work in a subservient position against your will. Your expression is invariably quite direct and candid. Others find it difficult to accept your domineering and, at times, argumentative manner
