William Miller Hazlett and six of his brothers came from Indiana county, Pennsylvania, to Linn County as early as 1855. They were all enthusiastic anti-slavery men, and Albert the oldest became a close associate of Old John Brown and was with him at Harper's Ferry and was one of those hanged at Charles Town jail. John, another brother, located two miles south of Prescott and married Grace Lonsburg, daughter of William Lonsburg, who lived on an adjoining farm, and have many descendants still living in the neighborhood. William Miller Hazlett served in a Pennsylvania regiment and married Elizabeth Fyock, widow of Levi Fyock of Indiana, Pennsylvania, and they came to Linn County in 1864 with six of the Fyock children, two girls and five boys. Charles Fyock, one of these seven, had served in Company F, Ninety-seventh Pennsylvania Infantry, joined the family here in 1866 and married Sarah Gump, daughter of John Gump, who had come here from Morgan county, Missouri. Charles and Sarah had six children. John Married Julia Scott; Cora married Case Eubanks; William; Lester married Miss Peavy; these children are all in Colorado; Grace married Dwight Cheever; Murray McKinley is at home unmarried.

Hazlett, Absalom (Albert), b. IC 9-21-1837, d.3-16-1860. Member of John Brown's Raiders at Harper's Ferry.

The full story of Hazlett's involvement at Harper's Ferry, his hanging and burial, is found in Vol. I:405-425; III:157-164, 262A,B,C.

The site of his birthplace is said to have been near the old "Devil's Elbow" about six miles E. of Indiana. He was a s/o Alexander Hazlett, listed in the 1850 census as a farmer of Green Township (now Cherryhill), age 40. His wife's name was Sarah, age 36, maiden name unknown. By 1860 she was a widow. Others in the family were Wasington, age 16 (in 1850); Absalom, our subject; Peter, 10; Jeremiah, 9; Henry,7; Mary,3 ; and Sarah,1. Henry enlisted in Co. B., 11th Reg't PA Reserve Corps, as a "minor in service", d.6-30-1862. There were also three older brothers not listed with the family in 1850. John Hazlett m. Grace Lonsberg and located two miles S. of Prescott, Linn Co, Ks.; was age 28 in 1860. Jonas Hazlett b.1-8-1835, a carpenter, moved to Kansas 1865 near Monticello, Johnson Co. He m. Malona R.
