Where is Singing in the Summer held?

Singing in the Summer is held on the campus of St. Louis Church - 12500 Clarksville Pike, Clarksville, Maryland 21029 - utilizing both the Pastoral Center and the Church.

What experience do I need?

No previous choral singing experience is necessary, though students with extensive previous experience may be selected for chamber ensembles.

What music will we sing?

The purpose of the program is to develop a love of singing in each of the participants. To achieve that goal, the music will represent a large variety of styles and time periods including Renaissance and Baroque pieces through Broadway and a cappella arrangements of pop tunes of today. Have a suggestion? Share it!

Who should sign up and sing?

All those who complete grades 8 - 12 during the 2010-2011 academic year should sign up and sing - from St. Louis Church, Howard County, and beyond.

What do I need to bring each day?

Water bottle

Pencil

Black folder / binder

Lunch

What are Interest Sessions?

Interest Sessions are a daily opportunity to explore new topics related to music and singing. Examples include Music Theory, Music History, Technology, Acoustics, and Composition. Don't see your musical interest here? Suggest it on your registration form.

Will meals be provided?

Lunch

No. Everyone will eat together each day in the Pastoral Center or outside, but lunch will not be provided.

Dinner on Thursday

Yes, dinner will be provided on Thursday for those who wish to stay at St. Louis between rehearsal and the concert.
