PASTOR'S PONDERING FOR MAY

Dear Friend,

Psalm 150 says:

Praise God with trumpet sound; praise God with lute and harp!

*Praise God with tambourine and dance; praise
God with strings and pipe!*

Praise God with clanging cymbals; praise God with loud clashing cymbals!

Let everything that breathes praise the Lord!

What a wonderful mix of ways to worship God!

Recently I came across a devotion by Lillian Daniel that I thought would be helpful for us at Lisha's Kill Reformed Church, where we love music and have definite preferences for the type of music we love. This is what Lillian writes:

"I find it interesting that so many churches these days give their worship service titles based on what type of music is played. If you tell me you attend the "traditional" service, I think of hymns from the eighteenth century, an organ and a four-part choir. If you tell me you go to the "contemporary service," I imagine a band, a drum set, microphones and a clock that stopped in the late eighties on the soft rock channel. If your service is "Taize," I think of that particularly meditative form of singing, and if it's "gospel," my mind goes to another inspiring style. [I wonder what "blended" brings to mind—a mixer?]

"But when did music become the primary descriptor of worship?

"I think this happened as congregations engaged in what we've come to call the "worship wars," which often got played out with "traditional" and "contemporary" as opposing forces, making sweeping pronouncements about the future of the church. "If you don't change your music, you will never appeal to young people." "If we change our music, we will lose the great tradition of the church." So we gave our worship titles, like advance warning, to make sure nobody had to ever hear anything they didn't like. Now who is being worshiped here?" Of course none of the sweeping statements proved to be true. Not all

Inside Lisha's Kill

We, the members of the Lisha's Kill Reformed Church, are called together by God to profess our belief in Jesus the Christ, proclaim the Word of God, and bear witness to that Word. Our ministry of preaching, teaching, fellowship, and service is intended to nurture that community so that we may grow and mature in faith and reach out to others in the name of Jesus the Christ to the end that God may be glorified and His kingdom on earth increased.

PASTOR'S PONDERINGS

young people want rock bands in church, and not all older people object to something new. And the church seems to continue to exist with a wide variety of music.

"I like worship that is just called worship, with no hint as to the music one will be hearing that day. As the psalm tells us, there are many different ways to praise God with sounds. But we gather to worship God, not one musical style over another."

What I think is so helpful about this devotional is that it reminds us that it is not our preferences in music or anything else in worship that are the important thing. Rather, the key is that our hearts are tuned toward the God we worship. May we bear this in mind the next time we love that song we sing—and the one we don't know or love so well.

To God be the praise and the glory!

Prayer:

Thank you, God, for the music that makes my heart sing and draws me closer to you. Thank you also for the music that I don't appreciate but which draws my neighbor closer to you. Amen.

Joyfully serving with you,

Pastor Lisa

EASTER SUNDAY

HALLELUJAH, HE IS RISEN. HE IS RISEN INDEED!

A glorious worship service on a beautiful warm sunny morning was enhanced by Rev. Vander Wal's Easter message.

Worshippers were welcomed by the easily recognizable scents associated with the beautiful flowers that adorned the sanctuary.

Flowers are given each year by the members of the congregation to honor loved ones and are arranged by members of the worship committee.

A Maundy Thursday evening Communion service was celebrated by the congregation of the Lisha's Kill Reformed Church see gathered in the Alicia Zhe Dining Room. A light supper and an enactment of the drama "From the Table to the Cross" was brought to life by members of the congregation. Hymns and a choir anthem were interspersed with the scenes of the drama and provided a very meaningful evening celebration.

HOLY THURSDAY

A Good Friday service was held at noon. Each person received a small smooth stone as they entered. When the service ended, each was invited to leave their stone on the communion table signifying "leaving your worries, letting go of the weight, marking an encounter with God, and remembering the time Jesus spent in the grave until Easter morning." A four-year-old boy attended the service with his grandmother and he clutched his stone tightly. As they approached the cross, he looked up at his grandmother as if saying, I'll put my stone there too!

KIDS HOPE PROGRAM FOUR MONTH REPORT

“A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, the sort of house I lived in, or the kind of car I drove. But the world may be different because I was important in the life of a child.

- Author unknown.

Time has gone by quickly, and our Kids Hope program has been up and running for almost 4 months now. Each week, ten mentors faithfully meet with their KH student, and ten prayer partners pray for the mentor and child behind the scenes. It is a team effort; the mentor, prayer partner and most importantly...God.

We know the positive, life changing influence a caring adult can make in the life of a child. Already we are seeing growing relationships, the smiles on faces and the joy a mentor can bring.

Our Woodlawn teachers are great. Some of the feedback I've received from the teachers whose students are visited weekly by a Kids Hope mentor include:

“...my student truly enjoys his time with her. She goes out of her way to make him feel special and always brings him some kind of treat. He loves the attention! Both he and I are thrilled.”

“This program is great. My students love it and I have terrific mentors. They are a great match for my boys. They listen and understand the needs of the children. Keep up the great work.”

Our Kids Hope students are awesome, and they too have opinions about their mentors. Keep reading to get a glimpse of what the KH kids are saying:

“... I kept waiting every day until Thursday and kept watching the clock till it got to be 11 o'clock – our meeting time!”

“... You're very nice! Are you going to come every week?... Great!”

“... you're the best part of my day.”

After our first Mentor's Meeting, I have no doubt that we are in the right place, doing the right thing for the right reasons; exactly where God wants us to be. Soon we'll be planning our end of the school year picnic, and begin looking ahead with excitement toward the next school year.

I urge you today, (yes I know it's only May) to consider being a mentor in the fall; it's not too early. Look ahead, adjust your schedule and join the Kids Hope program as a mentor, a substitute or prayer partner. One child, one hour, one church, one school... and YOU.

4th ANNUAL SUMMER CAMP DAYS

The theme for this year's summer camp days is "I AM."

Jesus is like a Global Positioning System (GPS) that points the way to the Kingdom of God. Jesus shows us how to be children of God. During this time at camp, we will experience life in a Christian community. As we grow together in our love of Jesus and demonstrate that love to others, we glorify God.

NOTE: An optional overnight at Camp Fowler is offered for this year's camp days. A brochure and registration form will be available soon.

Watch for details in the Sunday bulletin.

GOOD NEWS T-SHIRT

Jesus told his disciples — and us — to go into all the world and preach the good news. Wherever you go, this cool T-shirt will help spark conversations about your faith.

What you need:

- Newspaper
- Cardboard
- Plain white, cotton T-shirt
- Permanent markers
- Goggles (optional)
- Eye dropper
- Rubbing alcohol
- Clothes hanger

What you do:

1. Cover a table with newspaper. (Work outside or in a well-ventilated area.)
2. Place a piece of cardboard inside your T-shirt. (This keeps pen marks from going through to the other side.)
3. With permanent markers, draw a design of large circles, spirals, hearts, etc.
4. Wear goggles while dropping rubbing alcohol onto your designs with an eye dropper. As the alcohol permeates the permanent marker, the color will break up and spread in interesting ways.
5. Hang the shirt to dry.
6. When the shirt is dry, place cardboard inside it again. On the front, write "I have some good news to share with you." You can also write a Bible verse.

Just for KIDS

"I am with you always."

Before Jesus ascended into heaven, he encouraged his disciples in the work they had to do. We, too, are Jesus' disciples and should follow his same instructions.

Follow the words in the clouds to find Mark 16:15-16a, NIV.

Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved.

ANSWER: "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved." (Mark 16:15-16a, NIV)
