

FEDERATION NEWS SERVICE

www.ufpfleet.org

THE NEW JOURNEY

The times of change are always knocking at [UFP]'s door. The old give their knowledge to the new and continue on the legacy of a great fleet. With this we give new life into the Chronicle. For it shall be a representation of the fleet it serves. It shall give forth the attributes and function of [UFP]. From this beacon we shall shine our light into the star trek community once more and show all that this fleet has and shall always stand strong. We hold these very truths to bring you justice, information, facts and sound advice in all games of star trek. We will cover a number of topics listed to your right. The chronicle will be issued in this new format each month. Be well and see you out there.

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

Times of change	1
The Academy Graduates of June	1
Operations XO Appointment	2
STO STATE OF MIND	3
FNS TEAM	4

GRADUATES OF THE ACADEMY

For the month of June we had a good number of new officers added to the fleet. Many of these new officers will bring great attributes to our family. Some of these new ensigns have graduated with honor but, all have passed our academy halls with determination and distinction. We look forward to your future work in [UFP] and hope to see you in the many departments and fleets we currently have established. Welcome again fellow officers.

The Class of June 2010

Honors Class

Ensign Thrawn
Ensign Thrakhath
Ensign Dak
Ensign Ghost Bear

Regular Class

Ensign Goth
Ensign Bradley

OPERATIONS XO APPOINTMENT

By Commodore Costello

IRISH AMBITION

What must it feel like for Rear Admiral Ciaran; to be the XO of Operations after a dogmatic tenure at the United Federation of Planets and now, ironically, the overseer of the Federation News Service. Graciously, Rear Admiral Ciaran has agreed to a brief interview. The FNS brings to you, an insight into the man behind the title, a study into his most significant command to date.

I remember Rear Admiral Ciaran at his spirited peak, as a scatterbrained Fleet Captain - finding himself less considering the business of departments but instead supporting the battle-lines in the Devil Dogs war campaign, or constructively pushing the popularity of Legacy on the Xbox 360 as a Second Fleet stalwart. Even then, I knew he would become an Admiral. Diligence propels officers forward in [UFP]. Ciaran merely rode the wave into blue wing territory, following fellow Irishman Siberian Tiger's footsteps and doing so with equal shrewdness, but arguably more integrity.

Rear Admiral Ciaran, on behalf of the FNS, thank you for doing this interview.

Following Rear Admiral Defiant's appointment of your posting, what skills do you possess that makes you feel you are right for the job?

I possess three years of command experience with the United Federation of Planets, I have been privileged enough to hold several command spots as well as non-command positions in four different departments.

Do you feel you have relevant experience with macro managing departments?

Not specifically, no. There are no sub-departments within Diplomacy, the Academy and I have never held a Fleet Command position.

"Rear Admiral Defiant details Ciaran as the consummate XO for Operations, an officer that has experience across the board. He has his CO's faith, but what faith does our Irish Rear Admiral have in himself?"

What difference do you feel you can make to [UFP] as the Operations XO?

I feel that I can handle all requests directed to Operations in a timely fashion, within my duty specification.

Are there departments you feel you can improve, or any which you have already began improving?

I hope to leave a good legacy within diplomacy to get the diplomats more involved in how it's run to try and increase their interest in the department.

Do you have further plans as the XO of Operations?

I will discuss things with department commanders and I am looking to review all of the charters and see if any of them need updating.

Admiral Ciaran, thank you for your time.

The unsuspected appointment of course, came from a veteran of duty, Rear Admiral HTDefiant - the Operations CO. The FNS was fortunate to receive a communiqué explaining the Rear Admiral's choice for the XO appointment.

"I'm very pleased to have Ciaran joining the Operations team. We have worked quite well over the years, as far back as the Red Squadron. Our working relationship is quite good and flourished especially well in Diplomacy. I admire his work ethic, dedication to [UFP], and understanding of the fundamentals of fleet structure. His familiarity with our administrative systems, including phpBB and cPanel, is an added bonus. He has held a leadership position in Diplomacy, also served with Security and Engineering. His work with the Academy and Starfleet combined with aforementioned Operations experience led me to conclude that he understood almost all facets of [UFP] to a point where he was the obvious choice."

STO STATE OF MIND

By FNS TEAM

While the engineering report of June has given STO some much needed publicity. Many have asked what will become of the game. Klingon players in our fleet are still asking for the much needed content to fill their war cries with. Federation captains are also hungry for some diverse attributes and ships of old. Here we will bring to you a comprehensive list of what state of mind STO has for late June and early July.

Rank up to 51 (Vice Admiral/Lieutenant General)

New Captain Power

Rank 5 Ship Reward (Special T5 Ship)

Mark XI Gear

Player Ship Interiors (FED and KLG)

Select between 3 layouts

Make Consumables Mini-Game

Trophy Case (Captain Ready Rooms)

New Ship Interior Designs

Sliding Doors

Anomaly Scanning Mini-Game

Chance for additional anomalies

Dabo MiniGame

Holo Letta Dabo Girl

Klingon Mission Content

While some of these new attributes look promising we will hold our judgment on the new season 2 when it comes out of Tribble. Tune in for our next segment on STO 2.0 details. We will be going into great detail for you on STO changes.

Much anticipated functions in the above photo. You get a captain's ready room as well as finally sitting in the chairs you have on your ship. You get to display trophies in your deck out ready room as well.

News for the Klingon captains. You get to attack Utopia Planitia Ship yards. It will be out for testing on Tribble soon. Lets see how that goes.

Thank you for reading our publication. We will be bringing more attributes to the Chronicle as the months go by. We welcome your input or questions you may have and if there is a story you want us to report on please do drop us a line.

The FNS Team for the Chronicle is below. Its new command and reporter attributes are as followed.

CO: Starfleet Vice Admiral Invincible
XO: Operations Rear Admiral Magnis

Reporter: Commodore Costello
Reporter: Fleet Captain Delta
Reporter: Lieutenant Junior Grade Janeway

“Take the third Star to the left and onward till morning.”

---

We're on the Web!

Visit us at:

www.ufpfleet.org

---