Gospel for next Sun. March 30, 2014
Fourth Sunday of Lent

Theme: We are children of the Light.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's 2nd Reading, from Paul Eph 5:8-14

Brothers and sisters: You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says: "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you listen to this reading proclaimed again just now, how did it touch your heart? What did you hear? What word caught your ear?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: What are the things that Jesus wants you to do as his friend?

Question for Youth: Jesus helped a blind man see—and he helps each of us see the world differently. How do you see differently because you believe?

Question for Adults: Share how you, as a child of the light, in the power of Christ, produce goodness, justice, and truth for the world. What specific actions do you take to do this?

Water is an essential element in our lives. The human body is made up of approximately between 50% to 75% of water. Our earth is covered by at least 70% of water. We can go a few days without food. However, without water we would die sooner. In today's readings, we hear a lot about thirst and water. In the Book of Exodus, the people have been saved by the Lord from slavery by the Egyptians. Instead of trusting in the Lord in the desert, they are complaining and grumbling that they have been abandoned. They want to go back to their old way of life, Egypt. This shows us how quickly we forget about God's goodness and providence. It also shows that we can thirst for the wrong things in life and fall into sin. To satisfy their thirst, God had Moses strike a rock from which pours out water to drink. Despite the people's grumbling, God still provides because his mercy endures forever.

The Gospel of Jesus with the Samaritan Woman at the well is one of my favorites. We see that the woman is thirsty just like the Israelites though, she is not sure what it is she really thirsts. John purposely tells us that she comes out at noon, the hottest time of the day, so as not to be seen by others because she is a Samaritan and she is ashamed of her lifestyle. While conversing with Jesus, he draws her in slowly to bring her into an act of faith in him. When Jesus speaks to the woman of giving her living water, he is speaking about himself and his gift of eternal life, not the water in the well.

Jesus brings relief to her life of spiritual longing. Now that she has come to a full faith that he is the Messiah of her life, she then goes out as an evangelist and tells others about him. They come to believe in Jesus at first on her testimony, then by themselves alone. Lent is an opportunity for us to allow ourselves to feel our spiritual thirst and to welcome the living water that Jesus offers. It is also a time to share that living water of Jesus with others. We too like the Samaritan woman, are called to share our faith with others helping them to quench their thirst for salvation.

In his Apostolic Exhortation, Evangeli Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel), Pope Francis writes "Every Christian is a missionary to the extent that he or she has encountered the love of God in Christ Jesus: we no longer say that we are "disciples" and "missionaries", but rather that we are always "missionary disciples". If we are not convinced, let us look at those first disciples, who, immediately after encountering the gaze of Jesus, went forth to proclaim him joyfully: "We have found the Messiah!" (Jn 1:41). The Samaritan woman became a missionary immediately after speaking with Jesus and many Samaritans come to believe in him "because of the woman's testimony" (Jn 4:39). So too, Saint Paul after his encounter with Jesus Christ, "immediately proclaimed Jesus" (Acts 9:20; cf. 22:6-21). What are we waiting for?" As Moses strikes the rock allowing water to break forth and Jesus strikes at the heart of the Samaritan woman helping her to come to faith in him; may God strike at the hardness of our hearts so that we recognize that only God can quench our real thirsts in life.

LENTEN MISSION

Please welcome Fr. Patrick Martin, a blind priest, who will be presenting our Lent Mission next week.

Mark it on your calendar!

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Recently, I received great news from the Pastor's Advisory Board which oversees the Catholic Ministries Appeal for our Diocese. Our goal this year was reduced from $104,000 to $80,000. This makes the Appeal more manageable for our parish. I am grateful to the Pastor's Advisory Board for taking our concerns into consideration. I am also happy to announce that Kathy Mize, one of our dedicated parishioners, has accepted in taking on the role as the leader for the CMA in our parish. I am grateful to Kathy for saying yes and in bringing her creative ideas to help us with our goal. If we go over 80% of the goal, then our parish will receive a rebate. In this season of Lent, may we all take the time to give! More to come!

WHAT'S HAPPENING AROUND OUR FACILITIES

Our new boiler is working well. I am asking for you to sacrifice a little to help us with its payments. We never want to freeze in our church. Your extra offerings help keep us warm. Our rectory offices have a new carpet. This is to help the rectory be a little more welcoming and presentable for all of our parishioners and visitors. The winter took a hard toll on the old rugs. May this time of Lent bring us all a newness in our heart, mind and soul.

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always! St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought For the Week

When Jesus asked the Samaritan woman for a drink of water, He opened the door for a life-changing relationship with Him. Scripture says her testimony drew many others to Him as well.
We, too, must be ready to respond whenever and wherever the Lord speaks to us and be prepared for it to change our lives!

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all STEWARDS
in our parish who lead others to the Living Christ by proclaiming the Word of God as lectors and Scripture study leaders.

A Show of Epic Proportions

The story of Moses is the story of one of the most important figures in the Old Testament. He is central to the Book of Exodus, the Ten Commandments, the 10 Plagues of Egypt and his birth story has the elements typical of a great legendary hero. Raised in the court of the Pharaoh in Egypt, Moses then led the Hebrew people out of Egypt.
