Gospel for next Sunday, April 6, 2014

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Theme: New life in Christ Jesus

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Gospel, the short form Jn 11:3-7, 20-27, 33b-45

The sisters of Lazarus sent word to Jesus, saying, "Master, the one you love is ill." When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said, "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." He became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him." But some of them said, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, "Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go." Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

Step One: Listen to the Word: Listening today to this familiar story, what scene in it most affected you? What word of Jesus did you notice?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

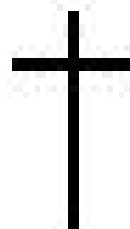

Question for Children: How do your actions show that you put your faith and trust in Jesus?

Question for Youth: Lazarus received a second chance at life through Jesus. How have you experienced second chances in your own life?

Question for Adults: The death from which we are called is healing from those things which bind us and hold us back: memories, fears, rejection, or other such things. What binds you? What keeps you from fully being your own most true self in Christ?

On ALL Fridays of Lent, all Catholics who have reached their 14th year should ABSTAIN entirely from meat. On Good Friday, Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59, inclusive, are also bound to observe the law of fast, limiting oneself to a single full meatless meal and avoiding food between meals. Two other light meatless meals, which together do not equal a full meal, may be taken during the day.

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

Sunday, March 23, 2014 $11,326
Maintenance $ 4,227

Sunday, March 24, 2013 $15,439

This Sunday is a day of joy called Laetare (Rejoice) Sunday. This day takes its name from the opening words of the Mass, the Introit's "Laetare (Rejoice O), Jerusalem". We can be joyful because Lent is half over and Easter is enticingly near. To celebrate this Sunday, the presiding priest may wear rose colored vestment and flowers may adorn the altar, marking our rebirth through our Baptism where we have journeyed from darkness into light. In our Gospel, we hear of the blind man's encounter with Jesus. We also hear of the conflict that Jesus has with the Pharisees over healing the man during the Sabbath. The blind man becomes healed not only of physical blindness, but also spiritual blindness because he can now see the Lord as his Messiah. He journeys from no faith to a little faith to full faith in Jesus as the Christ. Meanwhile the Pharisees who can physically see, are becoming blind more and more in their hearts to the God who stands before them. Their sins of ignorance and pride blind them of seeing the true, good and beautiful.

What about us? What are we blind to in our lives during this season of Lent? One way to clear our vision is through the spiritual practice of fasting. During this 4th week of Lent, as found on your Lenten Card, we are focusing on the importance of fasting. The act of fasting is an ancient practice where we detach ourselves from certain desires to awaken deeper hungers found within our hearts. St. John Chrysostom called fasting a medicine that helps make people healthy. We are often blind by our sensual desires such as food, drink, hunger, sex and pleasure. Fr. Robert Barron tells us that by becoming detached from these "admittedly good things" we allow for deeper hungers to emerge such as the desire for God, desire for intimacy and communion with him. This week may we choose one shallow desire to detach ourselves from, not suppressing it, so that we can help awaken our hunger for the living God who helps us to see his truth in a world of spiritual darkness.

LENTEN MISSION

Join us for our Lenten Mission Retreat this weekend and on March 31st and April 1st at 7:00pm here in the Church. Our guest preacher this year is Fr. Patrick Martin. Fr. Martin, a native of Limestone, Maine has worked with the "broken" of the world for some 40 years. Fr. Pat's work grew out of his own "handicap" –legal blindness since the age of 9. Now a priest of the Diocese of Norwich, Ct, Fr. Pat has preached parish missions on God's love in our Broken lives" in well over 1200 parishes worldwide since 1980.

May God bless you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

WHAT IS ALMSGIVING?

Almsgiving is tied closely with fasting. Whatever we give up, the money we save should go to the needy: the missions, the Church, or a worthy charity. It is also considered “almsgiving” to give one’s time and goods to those in need: food or clothing drives, visiting shut-ins, volunteering, etc.

Almsgiving will help push out of our life that which crowds our hearts.

Join us for Choral Way of the Cross presented by the St. Ignatius Loyola

Adult and Youth Choir.

Reflections and Hymns —

Friday, April 11th 7:30 pm in the Church

Sign up sheets are in the back of the church or email crayne5@aol.com with your name and at which Mass you would like to help.
