Gospel for next Sun., May 25, 2014

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Theme: We have the spirit of truth to guide us.

Breaking Open the Word: Suggested text for faith sharing Gospel Jn 14:15-21

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day, you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

Step One: Listen to the Word

What words or phrases in today's reading touch your heart and mind? What feeling do you have after hearing the promises of Jesus

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Jesus promises to be our friend forever. How do friends treat each other?

Question for Youth: Jesus promised us that the Holy Spirit (the Advocate) would remain with us always. When have you experienced the Spirit?

Question for Adults: Which one of the promises in today's Gospel gives you the most hope?

5th Sunday of Easter
Christ is Risen! Alleluia!
Jn 14:1-12

EASTER FOR 50 DAYS

Whenever a family celebrates an event such as a wedding, Baptism, First Holy Communion or graduation, they usually go all out and mark these special occasions with a party. Though not a part of our culture, some cultures (ie; Poland) celebrate the marriage of their loved ones for at least a week. This is because it marks a new event and a new creation not only for the bride and groom, but for their entire families.

The Church certainly has a major event to celebrate during this time of year with Easter. The resurrection of Jesus changed the world and our lives forever! As a Church, we need to celebrate. So we are celebrating for 50 days to help unpack the power of our Lord's resurrection in our lives.

Over the past few weeks, we have heard in the Scriptures how the risen Jesus comes to the apostles still with wounds in His hands and side showing them that He is truly alive. All we need to do is to believe and have faith. In the Gospels, we witnessed a profound hope that was given to the disciples who felt it was all over for them as they walked along the road to Emmaus. Jesus tells them that He had to suffer and die to show others that He is the Christ and that we belong to death no more. That same Jesus is present to us wherever we are or wherever we go, most especially when we are in church participating in the Eucharist. Last Sunday, we heard how the risen Lord is the Good Shepherd who always takes care of us and would sacrifice His life for us repeatedly just so we can share in God's life and live it to the fullest.

On this 5th Sunday of Easter, Jesus gives us great hope because he tells his disciples that His Father has room for all in his divine life. No one is excluded from God's heavenly banquet table. We do not have to be afraid of death. The Lord is leading the way. In order for us to follow Jesus however, we need to have a relationship with Him right here and now. Heaven is more than just a place. It is a relationship where we form a union with Jesus the Son who draws us into His relationship with God the Father. As with any relationship, we need to work at it. We cannot allow it to grow stagnant. It is crucial that we go to the Lord each day in our prayer, both alone and most especially in the Eucharist. The Eucharist always points us in the direction of our true home in living forever with God. Then we need to live what we receive. We need to be Jesus to one another.

In the Acts of the Apostles today, the Church was growing and a conflict arose. The minority Greeks felt neglected by the Church. Instead of ignoring the problem, the disciples called on the Holy Spirit to help them choose 7 people to help them minister to those in need. Some have called them the first Deacons. Our readings tell us that if we renew our faith in Jesus, receive him in the sacraments most especially the Eucharist and be charitable with one another, then we will be received into the eternal life of God. We need to make Jesus our truth and life who always shows us the way. If someone ever asks you where is heaven? All you need to say is Heaven is in Jesus. Jesus not only points to Heaven, he is Heaven.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL FIRST HOLY COMMUNICANTS & THEIR FAMILIES

It is so exciting to see our children receive the Lord Jesus for the first time in Holy Communion. On behalf of our entire parish, I congratulate all of our First Holy Communicants and their families. May the risen Jesus continue to fill your lives with His presence. Remember to come to Church each Sunday or Saturday night. Invite your parents to join along. Wear your communion outfits during this month of May. Be a sign and a witness that Jesus is very special to you.

CROWNING OF THE BLESSED MOTHER

Please join us as we crown our Blessed Mother as Queen of Heaven and Earth outdoors following the 12:30pm Mass today. All of our First Holy Communicants and their families are invited for this special event. May is a time where we honor the Blessed Mother as our Mother. She is our role model of faith that with God all things are possible. Mary is humanity's first yes to God. Her job is to point us to Jesus. As we crown her as Queen of Heaven & Earth, may we crown her as Queen of our very lives. Happy Easter! Feliz Pascua!

May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always! St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

VI DOMINGO DE PASCUA.

Editado por Ytala y Gabriel Ruiz

Jesús le dijo: Yo soy el camino, y la verdad, y la vida;
nadie viene al Padre, sino por mí Juan 14:6

YO SOY EL CAMINO, LA VERDAD Y LA VIDA

En este Domingo de Pascua, Cristo nos pide que nos confiemos en El, que contemplemos sus obras de misericordia con los pobres, pecadores, enfermos, hambrientos, etc., y que veamos en ellas las mismas obras de Dios a favor nuestro. Obras, que también nosotros deberemos hacer a favor de nuestros hermanos y hermanas de todo el mundo para que también ellos puedan llegar a la casa del Padre. Cristo es el camino, la verdad, y la vida, sin negar que hay muchos hombres y mujeres, que no han conocido a Cristo ni lo conocerán. De hecho Dios ha querido que sus hijos tengan a su disposición otros muchos caminos, que conducen al mismo fin...

Topic: Divine Providence

Discover how our fears and toxic guilt prevent us from living in the freedom of peace that God desires for us. We share examples of the fears that bind us and ways in which we can let go and see God's Divine Providence in our lives. This program and songs are particularly helpful for those suffering the grief of losing a loved one, for caregivers, or for those who are struggling in any way. You will have an opportunity to participate in a symbolic offering of your fears and have them prayed over. Come and refresh your soul and rejuvenate your spirit knowing that God's Divine Providence is at work every day in your life.

Father Charles and Laurie have united their gifts to praise God and minister to His people in a very special way. They have been singing for the Lord since childhood, and together they have touched the hearts of thousands with their meditative and inspirational music. In addition to producing 10 albums and a Christmas Show DVD, Father Charles and Laurie have also co-hosted their own TV show on Telecare for many years. They have sung at countless venues and their benefit concerts have raised over $375,000 for charity to date. This beautiful Night of Recollection on Wednesday, June 4th is guaranteed to be most uplifting! It is our hope that through this experience we will come to know, love and trust the Lord Jesus in a deeper and more intimate way, leading us to serve the Lord with gladness.
