Independence Day
Friday, July 4, 2014

The rectory will be closed on July 4th in observance of the Holiday. On July 4, 1776 we declared our independence from Britain. We should be grateful for our freedom and thank God that we are living in the land of the free. May God continue to bless the USA.

Happy Birthday America!

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Reading for next Sun., July 6, 2014

Theme: Jesus refreshes and strengthens us for ministry.

Breaking Open the Word: Suggested text for faith sharing: Gospel Mt. 11:25-30

At that time Jesus exclaimed: "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him."
"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. for my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

Step One: Listen to the Word: As you listen to the words of this challenging section of Matthew's Gospel, what catches your ear? What single word or phrase lingers now in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: When you are generous, honest, and loving, how do you know it is Jesus who helps you do that Question for Youth: Jesus invites us to bring him our burdens and promises us that he will give us rest. How do you rely on Jesus during times of trouble? When has Jesus helped you?

Question for Adults: As you go about your daily life, dying in love for others, how do you experience Christ giving you consolation and peace?

MASS OPENINGS
Donation $15.00

There are several openings for our 9AM Mass Intentions during the month of July . These Masses can be obtained at the rectory. The rectory hours are listed on the front page of this bulletin for your convenience.

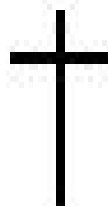

We are currently looking for a volunteer to lead our Respect Life Ministry. Please prayerfully think about this and if interested, call the rectory at 931-0056 and leave your name and telephone number.

We are also looking for a Wedding Coordinator (volunteer) to oversee and attend the weddings to ensure that the Mass and/or ceremony runs smoothly. Please call the rectory at 931-0056 and leave your name and telephone number. We would greatly appreciate your help. Thanking you in advance.

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

Sunday, June 22, 2014	$12,376
Maintenance	$ 4,018
Sunday, June 23, 2013	$11,674

Thank you to all who set up and participated in our annual Corpus Christi Procession! It was well attended and very prayerful by all. Most especially, thank you to our Martha's Guild, Religious Education, Spanish speaking members of the parish, Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion for creating our beautiful altars! Thank you also to our Altar Servers for leading the way! You are the body of Christ serving the Body of Christ! Gracias al todos!

Fr. Jim

Our Annual Parish Picnic will be Saturday, September 6, 2014. Mass will be held outdoors at 5:00 PM (weather permitting) and the picnic will follow immediately after in the church parking lot. More details to come!

COMING SOON PENNY SUNDAY

Save up all your pennies (and other coins). We are looking to purchase some new albs (the white garment that the priest wears under the chasuble). These new albs will replace ones that are worn and beyond repair and are primarily used by the priests who come to St. Ignatius to say Mass. More details to follow shortly.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought For the Week

Saints Peter and Paul worked tirelessly to spread the Gospel. Not all can be apostles, but we too, might be good STEWARDS of our vocations, using the gifts we've been given in the service of God's Kingdom.

Living Stewardship

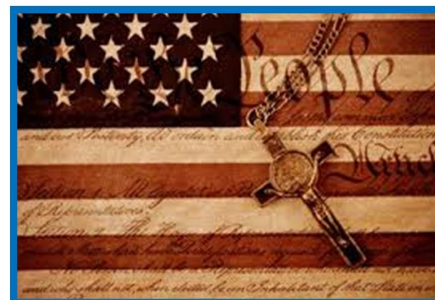

We are grateful this week for all STEWARDS in our parish who hear the Lord's call and respond by giving all they have, and are, in service to our faith community through parish ministries.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

6/29/14 SANTOS PEDRO Y PABLO, APÓSTOLES

Editado por Ytala y Gabriel Ruiz

“Apacienta mis corderos, apacienta mis ovejas.”

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús hace tres veces la misma pregunta a Pedro: “¿Simón de Juan me quieres?” y recibe la misma respuesta: “Sí Señor, tú sabes que te quiero”.

San Pedro fue un gran amante de Nuestro Señor. Falló una vez y le negó, todos lo sabemos y él jamás lo olvidaría. Pero después de ese suceso penoso hizo su fuerte resolución de jamás abandonar al Maestro. Jesús no duda del amor de su "Roca", pero le hace un triple examen para poderle repetir tres veces cómo quiere él que le demuestre su afecto. "Me amas. Apacienta mis ovejas".

Muchas formas ingeniosas podemos idear para manifestar nuestro amor, pero siempre será mucho más acertada aquella que nuestra persona amada nos ha confiado que le gusta más. Desde entonces San Pedro tuvo muy claro que amar a su rebaño -todos los cristianos- era lo mismo que amar a su Maestro, y que si quería darle su vida debía darla a sus ovejas. Lo importante siempre es hacer lo que Dios quiere y como Él lo quiere.

Jesús, decirte cuánto te quiero con palabras es fácil, lo complicado es demostrártelo permanente en mi quehacer diario. Te ofrezco ser fiel a la oración, a la formación, al apostolado. Con tu gracia, lo puedo lograr.

Family Life Committee

Have you noticed some of the "Family Friendly" activities and events at St. Ignatius Loyola Parish over these recent months? (Family Mass, Night with St. Nick, Easter Egg giveaway etc.) They are put on courtesy of the recently formed Family Life Committee. We have more things planned and we'd love to do bigger and better things for the parish, but our small committee could really use some help! We are looking for people who can help us plan, shop, decorate, and most importantly, help out the day of our events. Important: because we are working with children and families, volunteers must be VIRTUS trained and approved (diocese child safety program). You can check the Diocese of Rockville Centre website www.drvc.org for training dates. In the meantime, if you would like to help, please contact Sue at 433-2634/ suezq922@yahoo.com or Suzanne at 653-1634/ smccartney42@gmail.com

AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS:

It is with great regret that I announce the loss of one of our parish's most valuable families - Mr. and Mrs. Someone Else have moved away and the vacancy they have left will be hard to fill. The Someone Else's have been with us for many years; they have done far more than their share of the work. When there was a job to be done, or a meeting to attend, their name was first on everybody's lips: "Let Someone Else do it." Whenever a Committee was mentioned, this wonderful family was looked to for inspiration as well as results: "Someone Else will set up the event." And when there was a trip to take, Mr. and Mrs. Someone Else were thought to be the best transportation: "Let Someone Else take them."

The Someone Else's are wonderful people, but they were only human, they could spread themselves only so thin. Many a time, I talked with Mr. Someone Else and heard him wish aloud for more help. He and his wife did the best they could, but people expected too much from them. We have to face the fact that there were just not enough Someone Else's to go around. And now, the Someone Else's are gone and we're wondering "what we are going to do without them?"

Respect Life Ministry Training

The Diocesan Respect Life Office is offering a Back to Basics training in Respect Life Ministry. The training will encompass Level 1 and Level II and is open to parishioners who would like to know more about the principles of Respect Life and become involved in Respect Life Ministry. Both levels are for current Respect Life Leaders as well as for those new to the ministry.

DIocese of Rockville Centre
New York

June 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Every year since 2002, I have reported to you on our Diocesan response to the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. This Charter, issued by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) in 2002, established standards to be implemented in every Diocese in the United States. With guidelines in place, the Church diligently went about the task of insuring that our children would be safe from the dangers of physical and sexual abuse. This is a moral imperative which I as your Bishop take very seriously.

In the thirteen years since the sexual abuse scandal has come to light, the number of new allegations has dramatically declined. While this is good news, I want to assure you that I and all under the employ of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, including Clergy, Deacons, Seminarians, Religious and lay people, remain vigilant in keeping the Church an institution that is safe for our children and young people. We continue to take every allegation seriously and will always have available the Hot Line Number, 516-594-9063, where reports can be made. Established policies and procedures remain in place; for example, when an allegation is made we promptly initiate a report to the appropriate District Attorney. Simultaneously, the Office for the Protection of Children and Young People will reach out to the alleged victim, offer support and gather information. We remain firm in our commitment to uphold the standards we have in place.

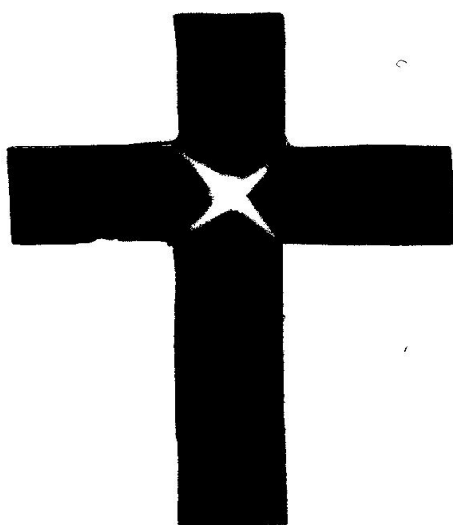

The Diocese of Rockville Centre remains pro-active in its approach to child safety. We have the expectation and requirement that all employees and volunteers attend a Virtus Class. During the Virtus class, adults learn to recognize the signs of abuse and to intervene before a child is abused. To date 98,800 people have attended these training sessions. Classes are held throughout the year in various locations throughout the Diocese. Presently we have 298 trained Virtus Facilitators conducting sessions in our parishes, schools and agencies. Abuse prevention is taught in all Diocesan schools and Religious Education programs. Children are taught what abuse is, personal safety awareness and how to report abuse of any kind. Under the direction of Eileen Puglisi, the Office for the Protection of Children and Young People initiated a clergy awareness program entitled Critical Conversations. This program builds on the Virtus classes, offering more content on specific issues such as electronic communication.

In November 2014, the Diocese will undergo an Audit conducted by StoneBridge Business Partners. This on-site audit will assist us in determining our adherence to the standards established by the Charter. In the past, our Diocese has been found to be in full compliance with the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and I anticipate similar findings with this Audit.

Finally, my gratitude and best wishes to Ms. Eileen Puglisi on her retirement. Mary McMahon, LCSW, replaces Eileen as the Director for the Protection of Children and Young People. I remain confident that the good work begun by Eileen will continue under Mary's direction.

The Church has done much, but we must remain ever vigilant. Society has many temptations that run counter to the Gospel traditions. Our young people are vulnerable to a culture of materialism and instant gratification. Please pray with me for the safety of all our children, and for on-going healing and peace for all those who have suffered. May God bless you.

Yours faithfully in Christ,
