Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme: The Greatest Commandment - "Love".

Breaking Open the Word- Suggested text for faith sharing: Gospel Mt 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Step One: Listen to the Word-As you listen once again to this familiar teaching of Jesus, what caught your ear in it today? What line or word from the reading lingers in your memory

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: We show our love for Jesus by loving our friends and family. Share one way that you show your love.

Question for Youth: Jesus tells us that we are to love others as we love ourselves. Do you love yourself? Can you see the good that God has put within you? Do you find it easier to love others or yourself?

Question for Adults: Repeat the two commandments which Jesus teaches today in your own words? For each of them, share how it has become part of your life.

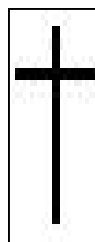

As stated in last week's bulletin, the parish garage sale on October 5th was a great success. Chairladies Karen Warner and Barbara Cheslock thank everyone who participated in large and small ways. We would be remiss if we did not mention the following.:

Thanks to the two youth groups that meet on Friday nights. They helped to transport all of the goods from the two garages to the auditorium. As parents came to pick up their children, they joined the group of transporters. Special thanks to three men who stayed until 10:30 when the task was completed: Aldo Canalis, Jorge Cruz and Adonoy Calidonio.

Thanks also go to the group of dedicated workers who set up on Saturday and those who helped on the sale day: Lou Ellen Klints, Charlie and Gen Pranci, Kathy Dolan, Phyllis and Paul Partenio, Anna Marie Esquerra, Virginia Da Silva, Darren Sadowski, Nancy Dodd, Peggy Gill, Brian Doyle, Ryan Wimbiscus, Carol Hogan and June Garger. A special thanks to Bill Cheslock for all his lifting and hauling, even days after the event and to the dedicated Facilities Staff.

This sale was also a success because of all the people who donated such wonderful and valuable treasures. We're happy to report that we made a profit of $4,342 for St. Ignatius Church.

Again a sincere thanks to all who participated in any way.

URGENT

I want to say “thank you” to all the volunteers who are giving their time to help the children in our parish. However, we are still in desperate need of a catechist for the following grade level.

Level 4-1

Please prayerfully think about helping us and the children. . If you are able to volunteer your time, please call Colleen at the Religious Education Office at 935-6873. Thank you

In the Gospel today, Jesus says: “Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” When God is the center of our lives, there is no problem with giving others their due.

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are helping your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

Open House

Time: 10:30am to 2PM

Open to families of 7th and 8th graders and interested transfer students. If you have any questions call (631) 587-8000 Ext. 113 or visit their website stjohnthebaptisths.net

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought For the Week

The bishops’ pastoral letter on stewardship reminds us, “Jesus not only calls people to Him but also forms them and sends them out in His service. Being sent on a mission is a consequence of being disciples.

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all STEWARDS in our parish who re-prioritize their giving in these challenging times and the faith to keep the mission of Christ first!

The Vocational Education and Extension Board School of Practical Nursing invites you to attend an Open House, Sunday October 26th from 9am to 2pm in the new school. Please stop by to see how this school is utilizing the building in their mission to help others become nurses.

Pastor's Corner

October 19, 2014
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time
World Mission Sunday
Mt. 21:15-21

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Every year at this time the Church celebrates World Mission Sunday. This is to remind us of our universal nature as a Church. The word Catholic means universal. As Catholic Christians, we are connected to all of our brothers and sisters both poor and rich, young and old around the world. We particularly have a responsibility to take care of our brothers and sisters who are materially poor. This is why we have the Missions.

We are invited to reach out and help build the Church in Mongolia, the youngest member of our Catholic Church, as well as our local churches throughout the Missions, in the most remote area across the world. Your prayers and generous gift to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, in the collection today, help the world of priests, religious and lay leaders in Mongolia and throughout the Missions who offer the poor practical help and the experience of God's love and mercy, His hope and peace. Pray for all our Missionaries like Fr. Saul of the Missionaries Javerianos de Yarumal, who served the Church in Kenya, Kammaroon, Ivory coast and Fr. Joe McCabe, MaryKnoll who has served our church in Africa and Russia. We thank you for your generosity to this very worthy cause.

THE GOSPEL

In today's Gospel, Jesus is put into a trap by the Pharisee, who did not support the tax to Rome, and the Herodians, who supported Caesar, with the question of paying taxes to Caesar. Jesus in his own way, turns the tables on them, by saying that as good citizens we are to pay what is due the government. If a government, represented by Caesar, becomes oppressive we are to correct it in peaceful ways.

When Jesus says "give to God what is God's", he means that all areas of life belong to God. Jesus is not splitting up a two world kingdom between Church and State. Matthew 22 culminates this by Jesus telling us "you should love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind and soul and love one's neighbor as oneself." Human beings, not coins, bear the true image of the living God and no edict from Caesar or any President, can absolve us from the mandate of loving God and to see God in our neighbor. There are instances where we as a Catholic community can no longer be that silent majority allowing our government to take an innocent life, such as the unborn or rob us of our freedoms in our expressions of faith. Nor should we allow the government to tell us who should be put to death when we believe that the image of God is found even in the worse of persons. We are to stand up as people of life.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AROUND OUR FACILITIES?

Please join Nassau County's VEEB School of Nursing for the Open House next Sunday, Oct. 26th located in what was called the new school. This is a great addition to our parish helping us to help others in medicine and to pay our bills. It is amazing what a little carpentry work can do to transform a building.

The boiler has been installed to heat both of our buildings (Old School & VEEB). Now we just need to pay the bill of $54,000. I realize that we have had many collections in the past, however, this is very important to help keep our young people, catechists, parishioners and our renters warm. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

May we continue to do all things for the greater glory of God. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families always. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

On a personal note, I just lost my Uncle Bob Korkuc who died last Saturday. It is because of him and his family that I came to Long Island. I shall be ever grateful to him. Please keep his family and my family in your prayers. May Uncle Bob rest in God's peace.

He also wants to give a big thank you to our Tony Condon for his tremendous support and cooperation with the car wash.

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

10/12/14 DOMINGO MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES

Editado por Ytala y Gabriel Ruiz

REFLECCION DE LA SEMANA

Cuando leemos el evangelio de hoy, quizás pensemos que Jesús al ascender nos ha dejado, se ha ido excesivamente lejos, porque el cielo esta demasiado lejano para nosotros. Sin embargo el cielo no es más que la comunión con

Dios, volver a vivir en la plenitud, en la unidad con el Padre. Por eso, es tan importante tener fe, porque quien no la tiene no piensa en esa dimensión de la vida y vive más apegado a la tierra. Pero para el creyente, la fe es llegar a la meta, a la felicidad, al encuentro personal con Dios al que hemos conocido a través de Jesús.. Jesús nos da fuerza, energía y ánimo para que llevemos Y COMPARTAMOS la Palabra revelada. Con toda claridad nos dice que no estamos solos, que Él nos acompaña en esta tarea que nos ha encomendado y cada vez que celebremos la Eucaristía se hace presencia entre nosotros y somos nosotros los que le seguimos los que tenemos que dar testimonio de el entre los más marginados de la tierra.

Family, Marriage, and Individual Therapy

Family, marriage, and individual therapy, provided by New York State licensed therapists, are available to our parish and 147 other parishes. This program, under the direction of Dr. George Giuliani, has been conducted in the Diocese for the past 38 years for the convenience of parishioners. It is provided by the Catholic Counseling Center, a proprietary professional corporation, which is independent of and not controlled or supervised by the parish or Diocese. Most insurance policies, including Medicare, are honored. For confidential information and appointments, please call Dr. Giuliani at the Catholic Counseling Center at (631) 243-2503 or go to their website: the-catholiccounselingcenter.com. All their therapists have always been licensed psychologists or licensed clinical social workers.
