Theme: Death and New Life

Breaking Open the Word Suggested text for faith sharing: Gospel Jn 12:20-33

Some Greeks who had come to worship at the Passover Feast came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me.

"I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it and will glorify it again." The crowd there heard it and said it was thunder; but others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself." He said this indicating the kind of death he would die.

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart? What image of faith does this reading give you?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Name one thing you can do or stop doing that will help you have a better friendship with Jesus.

Question for Youth: Sometimes one thing needs to die in order for something new to be born. When have you experienced this in your own life? What do you need to let go of now for something new to grow?

Question for Adults: Name one area in your life that you need to let go of, to die to, in order to rise with new life.

Pastor's Corner

4th Sunday of Lent
Mk 3:14-21

This Sunday is a day of joy called Laetare(Rejoice) Sunday. This day takes its name from the opening words of the Mass, the Entrance Antiphon's "Laetare (Rejoice O), Jerusalem". We can be joyful because we are reminded of the Lord's boundless love for us no matter who we are in this world. Also Lent is half over and Easter is enticingly near. To celebrate this Sunday, the presiding priest may wear rose colored vestments and flowers may adorn the altar, marking our rebirth through our Baptism, where we have journeyed from darkness into light.

In today's readings, we see how the people of Israel forgot about God. The Second Book of Chronicles tells us that they never listened to His prophets, they added "infidelity to infidelity" and they "polluted the Lord's temple." They fit Jesus' description on John's Gospel of people who prefer "darkness to the light." However, this did not stop God's love for them and for all humanity. Chronicles reminds us that even though the people were unfaithful, acting shamefully, and defiling God's dwelling place on earth, God had compassion on them. God's love is greater than any sin. It was through the Persian King Cyrus, unbeknownst to him, that the people of Israel were restored back to their homeland and their temple.

John writes that God loves the world that he sent his Son to rescue us from the exile of sin. Paul's letter to the Ephesians reminds us that we came to life because we are greatly loved by God. However, we need not only to believe this but to accept it and live it in our lives. The catch is that God gives us the freedom either to accept or reject his love. Why would we want to walk away from a God who gives us unlimited chances to make up for our sinfulness? What do the sins of the world have to offer that is better? Sure they may give us a quick fix of pleasure, but it never lasts as does God's love for us.

St. Theresa of Avila once wrote that if for one instant we let the love of God penetrate our hearts, then all things will become easy for us. This Lent, take the time to look and reflect on the crucifix. What does it say to you? While it will show you the horror of sin, it will also show you God's unlimited love for you and His curing forgiveness if we say yes and follow Jesus. No matter our troubles, God is that hound of heaven who is always with us and never abandons us. "For God so loved the world that he gave us his only Son so that all who believe in him may not perish but have eternal life." (Based on Jn 3:16) By the way, this is the quote we see at football games and on bumper stickers.

THANK YOU...THANK YOU...THANK YOU

Suzanne

Kareen

I want to thank Suzanne McCartney for her dedicated work on our journal, Community Connections. Suzanne had been working faithfully on the journal since 2008. We usually do not realize how much work goes into putting such a project together, even if it is four times a year. She has to converse with different parish ministries to inform us of God's good work happening through our people. I am grateful to Suzanne for all she has done and continues to do now with our Family Life Committee. May God continue to bless her and her family. We are now looking for a new person to take on the responsibility of continuing Community Connections. If you are interested and you like to write, please contact me here at the rectory. Otherwise, Community Connections will no longer be of service to us.

Thank you to Kareen Cassiero. Kareen has been our Stewardship Coordinator since 2008. She has worked very hard in building up the parish by inviting new people to join a parish ministry. Kareen reminds us that by our Baptism we are not just to sit in the pews, but also to be involved and serve our parish. May God continue to bless her and her family as she has retired from the ministry of Stewardship. If you are interested in motivating people to use their time and talents in a parish ministry, please contact me as well. May God bless you and Mary keep you and your families. May we remember to always do things for the greater glory of God. St. Ignatius Loyola, pray for us!

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL—OUR GOAL FOR 2015 is $80,000

Anyone from St. Ignatius Loyola Parish who gives to the Appeal this year, no matter the AMOUNT, will go into a RAFFLE. At the end of the year, four people will be chosen from the Raffle to have dinner in the rectory. This is a WIN WIN scenario.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Anyone with a family member serving in the military, please forward their name and rank to our bulletin editor at bulletin1859@aol.com or bring the name to our Rectory Front Office. We pray to give all of our soldiers the courage and strength to do the duty that is required of them. May they always remember our appreciation for the sacrifice they are making for us. We are thankful for the men and women who are willing to risk their lives to protect our freedom. I ask You to go with each of them and protect them wherever they go. Amen.

REFLEXIÓN

En este texto leemos que los judíos debaten quién puede perdonar y/o juzgar. Un hombre ciego de nacimiento es sanado, y mientras que los discípulos, los vecinos, los padres, y los judíos entendían que nacer ciego es el resultado de un pecado, Jesús tiene un punto de vista diferente. Jesús está más preocupado por regresar sus ovejas al rebaño que por discutir quién es culpable del pecado.

Ojalá que nunca nos pase a nosotros eso que les aconteció a los fariseos. Pidamos a nuestro Señor la gracia de ser profundamente humildes y sencillos de corazón, como este ciego de nacimiento, para creer en Él con una viva, para confesar y proclamar públicamente a Jesús, incluso a costa de burlas y de persecuciones que suframos en su nombre.

The Fourth Week of Lent

REPENT

Meditations for the Season of Lent

AND BELIEVE

The Name of the Son

John 3:14-21

The events that give rise to the teachings in today's Gospel begin a few verses before when the Pharisee Nicodemus comes to visit Jesus secretly in the night. Nicodemus has heard about Jesus and is curious, but he is also afraid. He wants to believe, but he isn't quite ready to make a public commitment.

The people of the Gospels aren't so very different from us. Nicodemus is intrigued by Jesus but unwilling to be seen publically with him. How often have you learned that someone you've known for a long time is or was raised as a Catholic? This is particularly true of famous people who are afraid that making their faith public will harm their careers. Sometimes we fall victim to this same temptation, hiding our faith out of fear. While we fear that we may be mocked or made fun of for our faith, in some parts of the world today people are being killed for their Christian beliefs. Truly the words of John 3:16 ("For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life") are at the very center of our faith. The season of Lent is the perfect reminder that we are called to let our faith show in our daily lives — with joy and fervor!

POINTS TO PONDER

- Do the people I work with, go to school with, and spend free time with know that I am Catholic?
- Who encourages me most in my faith? Who can I encourage?
- "But whoever lives the truth comes to the light" (Jn 3:21). How can I come more closely to the light of Jesus this Lent?

CATHOLIC INSIGHTS

A Good Pharisee

Although the word “Pharisee” has come to have a negative connotation, not all Pharisees were wicked. Nicodemus, the curious Pharisee in today’s Gospel, was one of those who eventually followed Jesus. A member of the Sanhedrin, he defends Jesus when the chief priests are debating what to do with Jesus. And after the Crucifixion, along with Joseph of Arimathea, he brought about a hundred pounds of myrrh and aloe to anoint Jesus’ body. Tradition says that he was martyred for the Faith.

FamilyActivity

Pretzel Prayers

Once considered the official Catholic food of Lent, pretzels date back at least 1,400 years. Because fat, eggs, and milk were part of the Lenten abstinence, these little bites of bread made only with flour, salt, and water were invented. They were wrapped in the shape of arms crossed in prayer, and the three holes in the middle represented the Trinity. Traditionally, pretzels were the perfect food to share with people who were struggling for food or living on the streets because they didn’t spoil easily. Make your own pretzels as a family (find a recipe on the Internet), and share them with someone in need in your neighborhood or community.

LENT PRAYER

Unto to you, I cry, my God!

“No one who lights a lamp hides it away or places it [under a bushel basket], but on a lampstand so that those who enter might see the light.” — Luke 11:33

Lord, give me the courage to be a brave and bold witness to you in all that I say and do.

SIGNS OF THE SEASON The Color Purple

The liturgical color for Lent is purple, symbolizing pain, suffering, and mourning. But why purple? Purple was the most expensive color in biblical times. Extracted from a sea snail, it took as many as 12,000 shells to get enough dye to color a handkerchief. Because of the enormous cost, only the wealthiest wore purple garments. When soldiers mocked Jesus for being the “King of the Jews,” they put a purple robe on his shoulders to belittle his claim. Therefore, we use the color purple during Lent to remind us of the passion and death of the Lord.

“Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts.”

— Pope Francis, Lenten Message 2014,

Catechism CONNECTION

“By the grace of God” Jesus tasted death ‘for every one’ (Heb 2:9). In his plan of salvation, God ordained that his Son should not only ‘die for our sins’ (1 Cor 15:3) but should also ‘taste death,’ experience the condition of death, the separation of his soul from his body, between the time he expired on the cross and the time he was raised from the dead.”

— Catechism of the Catholic Church, 624
