Theme: Being able to see the Risen Christ.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing Gospel Lk 24-35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them. He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What image from this reading lingers in your mind? What feeling did it give you?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Name some times when you know Jesus is with you.

Question for Youth: What are some ways that you know that God is with you? Who are the people, where are the place, and what are the occasions when you feel closest to God?

Question for Adults: When have you had an "Aha" moment, when you suddenly realized that God was with you?

SACRIFICIAL GIVING

Due to fact that we are still receiving Easter envelopes, we are unable to post the total collection at this time.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

As we celebrate this beautiful season of the Resurrection (Easter is for 50 days), perhaps we can make some time to visit our risen Lord during the Eucharistic Adoration –daily 9:30am to 3pm and usually the first Saturday of the month from 6pm to 9pm.

Adoration is essentially an embrace with Jesus in which I say to him: “I am yours, and I ask you, please stay with me always.” Pope Benedict XVI

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

Eucharistic adoration is the act of worshipping God as He is present in the consecrated Eucharist. Since the Last Supper, when Jesus broke the bread and distributed the wine, saying, “This is My Body” and “This is My Blood,” we as Catholics believe that the bread and the wine are no longer merely baked wheat and fermented grape juice, but the actual living presence of the Second Person of the Trinity. Spending time before the Blessed Sacrament, in prayer and devotion, is exactly the same as spending time before the living God. Adoration occurs whenever someone kneels in front of a tabernacle that contains the Blessed Sacrament, genuflects toward a tabernacle, bows before receiving the Blessed Sacrament at Mass or, in a more focused way, when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for adoration.

Ways to Celebrate Eucharistic Adoration?

Mass—At Communion, each individual bows in front of the Blessed Sacrament before receiving Our Lord under the appearance of bread and wine.

Exposition— When the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for adoration, you can drop by whenever convenient for personal prayer before the blessed sacrament.

Things To Do During Eucharistic Adoration

Here are some suggestions for what to do during private Eucharistic adoration:

Pray the Psalms or Liturgy—Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness, or seeking an answer, you will find an appropriate psalm.

Recite the Jesus Prayer— Say “Lord Jesus, have mercy on me, a sinner.” repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.;

Mediate using Scripture— Choose a passage from the Bible. Read the words and ask God to let the passage speak to you.

Read the life of a saint and pray with him or her. Most holy men and women have had a great devotion to Our Lord in the Eucharist. Read about them and pray their prayers before the Blessed Sacrament.

Pour out your heart to Christ and adore Him- Speak to Jesus, aware that you are in His presence, and tell Him all that comes to your mind. Listen for His response. Pray the prayer that St. Francis instructed his brothers to pray whenever they were before the Blessed Sacrament ”I Adore you, O Christ, present here and in all the churches of the world, for by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.”

Ask for forgiveness and intercede for others.— Think of those who have hurt you and request a special blessing for them.

Pray the Rosary— Ask Mary to join you as you gaze on Christ in the Eucharist and as you pray the Rosary.

Sit quietly and just “be” in the presence of God. Think of a visit to the Blessed Sacrament as coming to see your best friend. Sit quietly and enjoy being in each other’s company.

REFLEXION

Hoy Celebramos con alegría la Divina Misericordia, aprendiendo de Jesús a ser misericordiosos con los demás.

Jesús, también en la victoria nos enseña hacer humildes, sencillos y discretos. Ése será un gran testimonio de nuestra fe ante todo el mundo, como lo fue en los primeros siglos de la Iglesia.

¡Jesús ha resucitado!! Ésta es la noticia más importante de todo el Evangelio.

Y ahora, su gran triunfo, su victoria definitiva, su resurrección, se realiza de noche y a la vista de casi nadie. ¿Por qué? Además de revelarnos su humildad divina, este modo de actuar es una fuerte llamada a nuestra conciencia y a nuestro corazón para invitarnos a estar en vela, con los ojos del alma y del cuerpo bien atentos y despiertos.

¡El Señor ha resucitado! Sí, pero lo ha hecho en silencio. No con trompetas y espectacularidades. Nunca ha actuado así el Señor. También en su gloriosa resurrección sabe ser humilde... ¡Qué impresionante es el modo de actuar de Dios! Cualquiera de nosotros hubiéramos preferido restregar a los fariseos y a los sumos sacerdotes en la cara esta victoria. Pero Cristo no. Nunca ha actuado así. Y tampoco en su resurrección.

PARTICIPA DE LA MISA A LAS 7pm los Domingos y Primeros Viernes. VEN QUE JESUS RESUCITADO TE INVITA! TRAE OTRAS PERSONAS. SI?

Serving God by Serving Others

“No vocation is born of itself or lives for itself. A vocation flows from the heart of God and blossoms in the good soil of faithful people”

-Pope Francis

Answering the Call to Serve

Father James Shelton, ordained in June of 2014, remembers the day he entered the Seminary.

“From the first moment that I walked into the Seminary, I knew immediately that being a priest was what I wanted to do; I knew I was going to be happy and joyful serving God’s people.”

The Catholic Ministries Appeal helps seminarians devote themselves fully to their studies as they prepare to serve as our priests.

Today, serving as an Associate Pastor at Good Shepherd in Holbrook, Fr. Shelton hopes to reach out to others so they can “experience the joy and peace that the Lord provides.”

Please consider donating to the Appeal and making a difference in someone’s life. Thank you!
