Serving the
Olympia/Thurston
County Communities
Since 1891

Elkdom in Olympia, Washington began as Capitol Lodge #186; installing Judge T. N. Allen as the first Exalted Ruler on New Year's Eve 1891. The membership was made up mostly of state officials with a sprinkling of Olympia businessmen. When a change of administration came in 1898, many of the members lost their jobs; some went away to the Spanish - American War and others to the lure of gold in the Klondike. This caused such a slump in membership that the charter was surrendered before the end of the 1897 - 98 Lodge year.

The spirit of Elkdom never left Olympia and by 1903 Olympia was ready for the organization of Olympia B.P.O.E. #186. Grand Lodge had been so sure that Olympia B.P.O.E. would reorganize they had saved our original number, #186, for us.

Whether it is a large wedding party, a business meeting, or even a small child's birthday party, the Elks Lodge can provide the experience you are looking for.

Our spacious facility provides seating for up to 200 guests, but can be scaled down to accommodate smaller more intimate groups.

Is dancing included in your plans? The Olympia Elks boasts one of the largest accessible "floating" permanent dance floors in the area.
