

2009 Junior Staff Application Form
Japeechen District Cub Scout Day Camp
Camp Guyasuta June 29th to July 3rd and July 6th to 10th

We are looking for responsible, hard working, motivated and well behaved junior staff members.

Scouts need to be a least Star Rank, 14 years of age and have a Scoutmaster's recommendation.

Scouts under the age of 14, with a strong Scoutmaster's recommendation, you may volunteer to work at a station under the supervision of your scoutmaster or parent, who is a staff member. If you are a Den Chief, you may attend as a Den Chief for your pack. You will need to fill out an agreement form and medical. You can not work at the ranges. Contact me if you need more information or clarification.

Jr. Staff Daily Responsibilities: Be ready to set a good example! Be helpful, friendly and courteous. Help set up activity site. Place garbage bags in pavilion areas. Assist adult leaders at activity sites. You should be prepared to stay each day until all supplies have been returned to the office and each site has been cleaned and secured. We are responsible for all equipment and supplies. We are also responsible for having a safe Day camp. Camp runs from ~8:30 to 4:00.

Jr. Staff and Staff are required to:

- Attend an orientation, where you will learn the Emergency procedures, camp security procedures and stress management. June 4, 7:45 at Camp Guyasuta.
- Have Youth Protection training and provide a copy of your trained card.
- Sign a Staff Agreement Contract
- Turn in a Day Camp Health form
- If possible, attend the camp set-up day (June 28 – time to be determined later)

This Application form, Agreement Contract and Medical Forms and the link to on-line Youth Protection Training are available on the Japeechen web site,
