

Streeters

- #1 Did you make any New Year's resolutions?
#2 What are you planning for New Year's Eve 1999?

Chantal Pasche
Baking techniques

- #1 "I end up breaking them. I just set goals and try to do each of them."
#2 "My ideal would be to be with friends, having a good time."

Paula Gussman
Early childhood education

- #1 "Quitting smoking. I haven't broken it; I just haven't started it yet. Sometime this year."
#2 "I'm probably going to do nothing, like I do every New Year's Eve."

Alex Gillis
Precision sheet metal

#1 "I made one. If I tell you, it might not come true. But, I did break it."
#2 "I think I'll stay home. Call me paranoid, call me whatever...I think I'll be safer in my own house."

Robert Gillett
Algonquin president

#1 "I just see what's coming up, and decide what I'd like to accomplish."
#2 "I think it will be the college role (in millennium activities) that will be most important for me."

Jeremy Pershick
Hotel and restaurant management

- #1 "To quit smoking. I broke it Day 1 — Jan. 1."
#2 "I want to go to New York city and party in Times Square."

Carrie Asselin (top)
Tania Balice
Early childhood education

- #1C "I didn't make any because every other year I've broken them."
#1T "I stole one from my cousin, to always think of the positive first."
#2 "We're going to go to Florida, to Disney World."

Mandi-Marie Eno
Dental assistant

#1 "No, I didn't. I couldn't think of anything I wanted to do differently."
#2 "I'll probably get together with a bunch of friends. My ideal would be a little snow soccer."

Sheri-Lyn Jacklyn
Applied museum studies

#1 "Smoking. Oh, yeah, I broke it probably two minutes after midnight."
#2 "I want to be in Moscow, actually, at St. Basil's Cathedral."