Tomorrow Never Ends

Someone's out to make sure that Aya and her friends go through hell...

Rating: ★★☆☆☆

Notes:

Contains graphic nudity and sexual scenes. For adults only!

Synopsis

Friends Asuka and Aya fall in love with the popular guy Ryosuke, but he asks Asuka to go out with him. Aya decides to threaten Asuka with a picture of her in a compromising position, telling her to stay away from Ryosuke. No real harm, right? However, Yumiko (Aya's ex-best friend) comes back with a pack of thugs and is bent on revenge. She switches a letter that Aya was about to give to Asuka, and pretty soon poor Asuka ends up as the "butt of the joke" the less harsh term being used. Tamami, track star and friend to Asuka and Aya, is already in a bind when she ends up becoming a sex toy to (drumroll, please) a horny gym coach. But Yumiko's wrath of vengeance manages to include Asuka's kid sister and mother, Aya's big sister, poor Ryosuke, and the rich girl Reika. Some girls managed to fight back, and the thugs get what they deserve. But most of the young women's defenselessness, thanks in part to Yumiko, manages to warp them pretty badly. It's a tale of degradation and humiliation, not on the scale of Shusaku, but there's still some toilet fetishes. So be warned! (Absolute Anime)

75. Title: Words Worth 1-5 Completed

Synopsis

Words Worth is a high fantasy tale about the struggle between the tribes of Light and Dark and their quest to obtain the pieces of the Words Worth tablet. Astral is the young but inexperienced son of the king of the Tribe of Light. And yes, he gets to score with tons of beautiful girls :-) Words Worth's story is utterly forgettable. Told awkwardly, filled with holes, and accompanied by the most aggravating synthesizer score I've heard in quite a while. There's also the occasional poor animation during fighting scenes, and footage is reused often. But that's only the fighting scenes. The sex scenes on the other hand are animated quite nicely and explicit (no "money-shots" though). The art is solid and the character designs are very, very nice indeed. Lots of enjoyable characters as well, though being only 5 episodes long, a lot of them just don't get enough screen time, and there's not a lot of character development to speak of. There are some laughs in episode 1 and 5, and I really wish they'd throw in some more humor in the other episodes. Words Worth is definitely a title worth looking at, but even though story isn't as important to me in "H" titles compared to "normal" titles, it could have been oh so much better if they got a decent writer.
