

Q: What is better than finding a good hill to run 100 cone races on?

A: Finding a "Point Pleasant" with two great hills starting at the same spot...

May I present for your review:

P o i n t P l e a s a n t "

Just off Pleasant Valley Road, Chantilly, Virginia

The "Left Break"

885' Uninterrupted downhill
1.05 to 3 degree grade
w/ flat run-out area

The "Right Break"

975' Uninterrupted downhill
1.25 to 3.25 degree grade
w/ uphill run-out area

- Ample Parking
- Fairfax County Location
- Quiet ultra private wooded area with plenty of shade
- "It's in the woods so bring a broom and a blanket"

Directions:

From Fairfax: 50 West to Pleasant Valley Rd. South. After Braddock Rd. After 1/4 mile start looking for path in the woods on your left, parking is at the bottom of the hill by the creek.
Elsewhere: see maps on next page

"Skate it before they over-develop it"

"Pack it in, pack it out" "Take only pictures, leave only chalk marks" "Only clean runs count in 100 cone"

