TNT: ROCK 'CREEPY' DARK - STAGING AREA - DAY

HELIICOPTERS circle overhead. Organized chaos as Homeland Security sets up their command post. We can see the opening to a cave, taped off. As investigators don HAZMAT gear, the snakes through the crowd to FIND BRENNAN and BOOTH, who are also zipping themselves into HAZMAT suits. A Homeland Security Rep, LIEUTENANT JERRY FORBES, is with them.

BOOTH

~~It's actually glowing!~~

FORBES

~~Yeah.~~

~~(to Brennan)~~

~~We're going to need an ID ASAP. We could be dealing with a group who acquired nuclear material.~~

BRENNAN

~~I'll need a video link with my lab.~~

Another Homeland Security Agent comes up to them, reports to Forbes.

The reactor at Kensington is secured. And all military transports carrying radioactive material or weapons have been halted.

FORBES

Dr. Brennan needs a video link with the Jeffersonian.

As the agent nods and goes:

~~STOP~~

BOOTH
