

ROCCO

When Paul Ellering brings Rocco to ringside, Ellering gets an additional distraction attempt beyond the standard one per match. This second distraction attempt has a distractor rating of "5".

Also, when Rocco is present the following changes occur to Hawk's and Animal's playing cards:

- Hawk's PIN increases by 1.
- Animal's pw rating becomes "-3"
- Hawk's ag rating becomes "0"
- Animal's move number 6 on level 2 offense becomes "Irish whip into corner clothesline – 3 (tag)", ignoring the "add 1" instruction printed behind the original move on the card.
