

Descendants of Philip Coon

Generation No. 1

1. Philip¹ Coon was born 1696 in Germany, and died Aft. 1788 in Harrison County, Virginia (WV).

Notes for Philip Coon:

From a research of more than fifty years ago, PHILIP and two brothers immigrated to Philadelphia in 1720. If so, they were originally Mennonites in Holland, of Walloon ancestry. Early records in America show they were Baptist. In about 1760 the Coon's started to travel different ways. One of Philip's brothers went into the valley of Virginia. PHILLIP and the other brother traveled west to German Twp, Fayette co. Pa. (which was also called Va or Pa) They lived there around 10 years. The spelling of the name are found as Coon, Koon, Kuhn, Koontz and etc. PHILLIP may have had 12+ sons. If he did we have not found them all. PHILLIP and some of his children moved to Monon co. Va. (which is later Harrison co. Va. and now called Marion Co. WV) They built Coon's Fort in 1777 (some people believe the fort was started in 1774) At least four young men in the Coon family fought in the French and Indian Wars and the American Revolution. The Coons' Fort was kept up until some time in 1789/90, when it was abandoned (dismantled)

The Coons' Fort was on the land of Philip and Joseph Coon. PHILIP was still living in 1787/8 Minute Book HRSN co. Va. Philip Kuhn (not sure if ours) 9/19/1738 Palatines imported in the ship The Thistle, John Wilson, Commander, from Rotterdam, last from Plymouth, England --- 300 passengers -- "A collection of 30,000 names of German, Swiss, Dutch, French and other Immigrants in Pennsylvania from 1727-1776" by I. Civil War information on Robert Alford:

Robert Alford enlisted in Company B, (1st Battalion Virginia Mountain Rifles) on 6 April 1862 in Logan County (now WV). He transferred to Company D, Capt. Carter's Company, on 19 Nov 1862. Witcher's Battalion is officially known as 34th Battalion Virginia Cavalry.

[Cole, Scott C. 34TH VIRGINIA CAVALRY. Lynchburg, VA: H.E. Howard, Inc., 1993. From The Virginia Regimental Histories Series.]

After the Civil War started Robert took his best horse and joined the C.S.A. A crippling injury in Tennessee caused one leg to be shorter than the other (see Hardesty's History information listed under Robert's son, Lafayette Alford).

The surname for Robert and family was spelled 'ALFRED" in the 1860 Federal census (Cabell County, Virginia).

After the death of his first wife, Leanza Coon, Robert married his nephew William Alford's widow, Sarah Dolin Alford. Family information indicates that Robert abandoned his second wife and son after his return from action in the Civil War.

[NOTE: The 1850 census, enumerated in August 1850, lists the youngest child, a son, of Robert and Leanza Coon Alford, as 'John W. Alford - age 3/12 years. This date coincides with the May 1850 date of birth of Lafayette Alford. Subsequent census data along with the Hardesty Encyclopedia information, not to mention family information, confirms the correct name as 'Lafayette Alford.' One can only guess that it was an enumerator error.]

Lafayette Alford - was born May 7, 1850, in what was then Cabell County, Virginia. He was a son of Robert and Leanze (Coon) Alford, who were living in what is now Lincoln County when it was organized, and a grandson of George Alford, who was prominent among the earliest settlers here, living a few miles below the present site of Griffithsville, and raising a large family there. The subject of this sketch owns 85 acres on Trace Fork of Mud River, and has 50 acres under cultivation. He has eight acres of choice fruit, and all the land abounds in that mineral wealth which in the near future will be developed in this county. His father, who is now sixty-eight years of age, was shot through the thigh while in Tennessee, serving in the Confederate Army, Witcher's Battalion. he was badly crippled by his injury, one leg remaining seven inches shorter than the other.

In Lincoln County, March 4, 1873, Lafayette Alford wedded Sarah Catharine V. Adams. She was born in Franklin County, Virginia, March 2, 1850, a daughter of John Quincy and Sarah (Goode) Adams, of Franklin County. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Alford are three living, two deceased: Rose Delphine, born January 28, 1873, died November 7, 1878, James Wilbert, born July 24, 1875, died October 26, 1878, William Thomas, born November 30, 1876. Charleston rescue teams are expected to resume a search of the Kanawha River this morning for the body of a Lincoln County man who jumped from the South Side Bridge Monday night. Kent Carper, director of public safety, said the search was called off at 10 p.m. because of darkness. The search was scheduled to resume at 8 a.m. today. Cpl. Six divers from the Charleston Rescue Diving Team made up of police, fire and rescue personnel searched the river for about three hours. Carper said visibility in the water was limited to 6 inches. Witnesses said the man jumped at about 6:10 p.m. from the west railing near the north end of the bridge. The divers entered the water at 7 p.m. to search for the body.
