Dear Mr. Sever Plocker:

I read your opinion article, "The deniers and the forgetters" <http://www.ynetnews.com/articles/0,7340,L-3243500,00.html>. With all due respect and understandable pain and anguish, I found your tone quite accusative. It appears that you sat down with a wall size picture of hatred in your head against Muslims in general and Palestinians in specific to prepare you for the vengeful oratory, from the very outset. For your information, the truth is far from your imaginative description where you portrayed the Zionist state nothing but a perpetual victim. Contrary to your vociferous but bogus claim that, "Most Muslims are convinced that the murder of six million Jews during World War II did not happen at all, or that its dimensions have been blown out of proportion in a Jewish-Western conspiracy (as Hamas claims, for example), with the goal of using it as a justification for Zionism.", no one in Muslim world denies the unfortunate events under Hitler's maniacal scheme of world domination that took the life and honor of six million Jewish people.

Please do not equate the struggle of Palestinian people for the past 60 years to hatred or denial. And yes, it IS a disgrace and WRONG in the Muslim world to deny the Holocaust. By the way, I also don't think you know the 'Muslim' world - beyond Gaza, Nablus or West Bank - that well! Please don't try to call the resistance to your government's mighty oppression day in and day out, by those who have been made refugee in their own land by design and not by choice of their own, a denial.

The naked truth about the Zionist state is this: that the powerful propaganda machinery which even surpasses the cold war era 'pogrom', has seen to it that nobody, repeat, nobody ever questions the wrongdoings by the State of Israel - not even a respected ex-President of the United State!!

Mahmoud Ahmedinijad speaks his mind alone; he is not a spokesperson for the Muslims all over the world. In fact, many of his own countrymen do not endorse his verbal outrage.

So, wake up Mr. Plocker. Wipe your spectacles against your sleeve, clean the mush in your head that is clouding your judgment and look at the world in a fresh light with a less smudged and suspicion-free attitude. Muslims aren't out to get you or your people!

That's my 2-cents when you sit down to pen your next opinion!
