Ok, trevor will be there. Zo, me and you have to build him a computer, quick. Here's what I was thinking...

PPro+ram+video- zo
V2- Me
Keyboard, Mouse- Me
Sound- Me (unless someone has a more decent one than my super cheap sb16 ripoffs)
HD- Zo, I know you have some extras lying around
Monitor- I suppose he can use my 15", and I'll bring 19"
Sound- I have a pair of headphones, and an extra clip on mike
Case- I have my atx pos one, but it'll work

Total cost? Absolutely nothing, and we get Trevor's wonderful personality to grace mike's basement... the best thing since we sat in mike's room watching porn and dave was jacking off...

If we do do this, it'd have to be soon obviously, most likely tomorrow night... well zo, are you up for it? otherwise, we're just going to take your computer and give it to trevor!
