Off to a flying start at the airport! Thanks to Damian McCarthy and his wonderful helper Liz Brooks, who sold Red Nose product at the QANTAS terminal, Melbourne Airport on Red Nose Day. Great job Damian! We hope to see you again in 2006! (Below)

Thanks to the staff at Hocking Stuart Sandringham, together with the East Sandringham Footy Club boys, who had a nosey time at the Sandringham railway station on Red Nose Day. (Right)

Despite the cold Melbourne morning, the staff at Deloitte and Lloyd Morgan were RED-Y and willing to lend a hand in and around the CBD on Red Nose Day, selling Red Nose stock to commuters and passers by. Thanks to all volunteers for their efforts. (Left and Below)
