

Wednesday March 3, 2004

F.A.C.E.S. Stop the Hate!

Political Forum on Hate Crimes
Speakers from USF administration and outside organizations will discuss issues regarding hate crimes and how they affect our community.

6p.m. in McLaren 252

Friday March 5, 2004

Allies Training Workshop:

Become a USF Ally and learn how to create a safe community
for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning
(LGBTQ) students, staff, and faculty.

Sign up in UC403 or call x6484

Sunday March 7, 2004

Student Run Mass:

Focused on respecting and accepting our differences.

9 p.m. in Xavier Chapel

Monday March 8, 2004

A Student Dialogue with featured Speaker:

Elena Featherston on "Beyond the 'ism' Schism:
Multicultural Alliance Building"
7 p.m. in the Fog N Grog

Tuesday March 9, 2004

Exploring Religious Diversity:

Info tables on different faiths represented on campus.
From 12-1 p.m. in walkway outside of Crossroads

Featured Film: American History X -

A graphic examination of extremism in America, the film follows
one man's struggle to break away from his ties with Neo-Nazism.
6 p.m. in Hayes - Healy Lounge (with discussion afterwards).

Wednesday March 10, 2004

Featured Film: The Laramie Project

and Discussion Facilitated by USF Alliance

What happens to a community when trust among its own people has been shattered?
This film examines the effects of a tragic hate crime in which University of Wyoming
student, Mathew Shephard, was brutally murdered because of his sexual orientation.
6 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge

Wednesday March 3, 2004

F.A.C.E.S. Stop the Hate!

Political Forum on Hate Crimes
Speakers from USF administration and outside organizations
will discuss issues regarding hate crimes and how they
affect our community.

6p.m. in McLaren 252

Friday March 5, 2004

Allies Training Workshop:

Become a USF Ally and learn how to create a safe community
for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning
(LGBTQ) students, staff, and faculty.

Sign up in UC403 or call x6484

Sunday March 7, 2004

Student Run Mass:

Focused on respecting and accepting our differences.

9 p.m. in Xavier Chapel

Monday March 8, 2004

A Student Dialogue with featured Speaker:

Elena Featherston on "Beyond the 'ism' Schism:
Multicultural Alliance Building"
7 p.m. in the Fog N Grog

Tuesday March 9, 2004

Exploring Religious Diversity:

Info tables on different faiths represented on campus.
From 12-1 p.m. in walkway outside of Crossroads

Featured Film: American History X -

A graphic examination of extremism in America, the film follows
one man's struggle to break away from his ties with Neo-Nazism.
6 p.m. in Hayes - Healy Lounge (with discussion afterwards).

Wednesday March 10, 2004

Featured Film: The Laramie Project

and Discussion Facilitated by USF Alliance

What happens to a community when trust among its own people has been shattered?
This film examines the effects of a tragic hate crime in which University of Wyoming
student, Mathew Shephard, was brutally murdered because of his sexual orientation.
6 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge

Wednesday March 3, 2004

F.A.C.E.S. Stop the Hate!

Political Forum on Hate Crimes
Speakers from USF administration and outside organizations
will discuss issues regarding hate crimes and how they
affect our community.

6p.m. in McLaren 252

Friday March 5, 2004

Allies Training Workshop:

Become a USF Ally and learn how to create a safe community
for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning
(LGBTQ) students, staff, and faculty.

Sign up in UC403 or call x6484

Sunday March 7, 2004

Student Run Mass:

Focused on respecting and accepting our differences.

9 p.m. in Xavier Chapel

Monday March 8, 2004

A Student Dialogue with featured Speaker:

Elena Featherston on "Beyond the 'ism' Schism:
Multicultural Alliance Building"
7 p.m. in the Fog N Grog

Tuesday March 9, 2004

Exploring Religious Diversity:

Info tables on different faiths represented on campus.
From 12-1 p.m. in walkway outside of Crossroads

Featured Film: American History X -

A graphic examination of extremism in America, the film follows
one man's struggle to break away from his ties with Neo-Nazism.
6 p.m. in Hayes - Healy Lounge (with discussion afterwards).

Wednesday March 10, 2004

Featured Film: The Laramie Project

and Discussion Facilitated by USF Alliance

What happens to a community when trust among its own people has been shattered?
This film examines the effects of a tragic hate crime in which University of Wyoming
student, Mathew Shephard, was brutally murdered because of his sexual orientation.
6 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge

Wednesday March 3, 2004

F.A.C.E.S. Stop the Hate!

Political Forum on Hate Crimes
Speakers from USF administration and outside organizations
will discuss issues regarding hate crimes and how they
affect our community.

6p.m. in McLaren 252

Friday March 5, 2004

Allies Training Workshop:

Become a USF Ally and learn how to create a safe community
for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning
(LGBTQ) students, staff, and faculty.

Sign up in UC403 or call x6484

Sunday March 7, 2004

Student Run Mass:

Focused on respecting and accepting our differences.

9 p.m. in Xavier Chapel

Monday March 8, 2004

A Student Dialogue with featured Speaker:

Elena Featherston on "Beyond the 'ism' Schism:
Multicultural Alliance Building"
7 p.m. in the Fog N Grog

Tuesday March 9, 2004

Exploring Religious Diversity:

Info tables on different faiths represented on campus.
From 12-1 p.m. in walkway outside of Crossroads

Featured Film: American History X -

A graphic examination of extremism in America, the film follows
one man's struggle to break away from his ties with Neo-Nazism.
6 p.m. in Hayes - Healy Lounge (with discussion afterwards).

Wednesday March 10, 2004

Featured Film: The Laramie Project

and Discussion Facilitated by USF Alliance

What happens to a community when trust among its own people has been shattered?
This film examines the effects of a tragic hate crime in which University of Wyoming
student, Mathew Shephard, was brutally murdered because of his sexual orientation.
6 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge