Activity Rooms New Names

Many of you have noticed the new signage next to each door of the activity rooms in the Activity Complex and the Fitness Center. Four rooms' names have been changed to Arizona Indian tribe names: Navajo (Room A), Pima (Room D), Zuni (Library Meeting Room), and Hopi (Administration Building Meeting Room). They are in keeping with the name of our community. An Activity Complex sign has been installed on the upper area of the building.

Canadians have Peace of Mind that they are transported home to Canada not just to the “closest appropriate hospital”.

Library News

It takes a lot of people to make the Book and Bake Sale a success, so it is time for some “Thank You’s”: Shirley Ristau and her crew of volunteers were great, especially Marilyn Simon and Fay Thorsell, who set up the sale in record time. Next, Shirley Macasa and her helper Pat Teich, for handling the Bake Sale. Last but not least, all the wonderful bakers in Apache Wells and all the residents who purchased books and donated books, movies, etc. A big thank you to Clarence Spicer for taking the leftover books to the Veterans Hospital in Phoenix.

For those of you returning to your summer homes, please check your homes here for Library property that needs to be returned. Submitted by Colleen Clampett.
