Subject: A new low

After the General Meeting last Tuesday night as people were leaving Apache Hall Walt Stromme was talking to Charon Johnson.

Marlene Singer who was curious about the County Voting service for $350. that Stromme had mentioned and wanted to ask him for more information on that process.

In her effort to get Stromme's attention tapped him on the shoulder and Stromme spun around and shouted several times "you assaulted me" and asked people around him "who was that woman?"

This may not have been wise of Marlene because Stromme is not famous for straight answers and very unpredictable.

Last night at 8 PM 2 policemen served Marlene with a summons to appear in Mesa Municipal Court to plead guilty or not guilty to assault charges.

Tuesday night Marlene was distraught and spent a sleepless night from the shock of that encounter and last night after her summons she was of course a basket case.

One wonders how a 70 year old widow with arthritic hands could assault a person of Stromme's size ... Stromme explained to the officers that he has a muscular problem which is very painful. The officers checked his body for bruises and found none. With a muscular problem that sensitive should he be driving a school bus delivering children to school?

This disturbs greatly as I feel that possibly Stromme may be using Marlene to get to me somehow. I'm not allowed to contact any plaintiffs although it would be my pleasure to tell him how low in the gene pool he is.
