Dave Rogahn

Players are evaluated using two statistical formulas, which are then combined to form a third statistical formula. All formulas are based on game statistics, ensuring their objectivity.

The first formula is a Performance Index. This is a slightly modified version of what is used at the NBA Pre-Draft Camp in Chicago. The formula is as follows:

$$\text{Index} = \text{pts} + \text{rebs} + \text{asts} + \text{blk} + \text{stl} + 3\text{pt} + \text{fg} - \text{fga} + \text{ft} - \text{fta} - \text{turnovers}$$

This formula rewards production but also places a premium on efficiency.

The second formula, which I created several years ago for use on my JCHoops.com site, measures the activity or energy for the player. Even if a player's shot isn't falling on a particular day, he will receive a good rating just by taking the shots, grabbing the rebounds, etc. These ratings tend to be more consistent from game to game than the Performance Index since (a) a player's energy is something he can control to a large extent, unlike whether his shot goes in and (b) good players tend to be in the middle of the action game after game.

I call this the Activity Rating Formula, or ARF. The formula is is:

Finally, there is a third rating which combines the first two ratings. To keep one of the first ratings from having a disproportional effect, the two ratings are calibrated. And all the ratings are adjusted for (approximate) minutes played.

A "pace factor" is also thrown into the equation to ensure that players aren't at a disadvantage when they play on teams that play at a slower pace with fewer possessions. The pace factor is obtained by adding up the number of possessions for both teams (fga+fta+turns) and dividing that by the average number of possessions per game in the showcase.

Players are evaluated using two statistical formulas, which are then combined to form a third statistical formula. All formulas are based on game statistics, ensuring their objectivity.

The first formula is a Performance Index, or "Perf". This is a slightly modified version of what is used at the NBA Pre-Draft Camp in Chicago. This formula rewards production but also places a premium on efficiency.

The second formula is the Activity Rating Formula, or "ARF", which I created several years ago for use on my JCHoops.com site. ARF measures the activity or energy for the player. Even if a player's shot isn't falling on a particular day, he will receive a good rating just by taking the shots, grabbing the rebounds, etc.

And there is one final component: a "pace factor". This is to equalize things for players who played in games with a slower pace.

Finally, there is a third rating which combines the first two ratings. To keep one of the first ratings from having a disproportional effect, the two ratings are calibrated. And all the ratings are adjusted for (approximate) minutes played.

For a more complete (and even more technical) explanation click here: Explanation of Player Evaluations

Players are listed as either guards or forwards, but that is purely informational and has no effect whatsoever on the ratings.

And finally, since the players were chosen to play in game(s) based largely on their ability, players are listed by the game(s) in which they played.

Talk about it in the Message Boards

One of the highlights of the fall basketball season took place this past Sunday when the Fullcourt Press Fall Showcase was held at Jordan High School in Long Beach. There were two games for each of the four class years, with players from all over Southern California and beyond in attendance. This is the first in a series of articles covering the event: game-by-game summaries of the two freshmen and two sophomore games.

By Dave Rogahn

Top 40 Freshmen: White 56, Black 47

Corey Waller (Long Beach Poly) had 14 points while Kamyron Crocker (Los Alamitos) and Brandon Moore (Mayfair) each had 11 to lead the White team to the win in the day's first game.

The White team led most of the way, building a 10-point lead at 23-13 and holding a 6-point lead at halftime. The margin ballooned to 16 points at 47-31 midway through the second half before a late rally closed the margin to 4 points at 51-47 with just over a minute left. Then Andre Newman (Ayala) scored to push the margin back to 6, then grabbed a rebound, was fouled and made a free throw to make it 54-47. A basket by Moore after a steal by Dylan Garrity (Edison) clinched the win for the White team.

Waller made 7 of 12 shots from the floor and also had 6 rebounds and 4 steals for the winners. Newman had 9 points and 6 rebounds, while Ernest Pettaway (Palos Verdes) had 8 points plus a game-high 9 rebounds. Garrity did not score but finished with game-highs of 6 assists and 5 steals.

For the Black team, Billy Keller (Kaiser) led the way with 19 points, 6 rebounds and 4 steals. Devon Potts (Gahr) had 9 points. And 6-foot-3 8th grader Andre Frazier (Los Angeles) finished with 6 points, 5 rebounds and a stunning total of 9 blocked shots.

Dominique Dunning (Santiago) posted a double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Black team to a 66-57 win in the day's top game for Freshmen.

The Black team jumped out to an early 13-2 lead and led the rest of the way as the White team missed 15 of its first 16 shots from the floor. But the White team rallied to cut the margin to a single point with about 6 minutes left before the Black team pulled away again.

Alex Carmon (Long Beach Poly) had 11 points and Bruce English (La Verne Lutheran) had 10 for the winners. And Cezar Guerrero (St. John Bosco) had 8 points plus 7 rebounds and 3 steals.

For the White team, Austin McBroom (Campbell Hall) led the way with 15 points and 4 assists. C.J. Cooper (La Verne Lutheran) had 14 points, 3 assists and 3 steals. Kevin Payne (La Verne Lutheran) and Byron Wessley (Rialto) both narrowly missed double-doubles; Payne finished with 11 points and 9 rebounds while Wessley totaled 9 points and 9 rebounds.

Top 40 Sophomores: White 87, Black 66

In the day's first game for sophomores, the long-distance shooting of Alex Varner (Eisenhower) and Raynard Tyler (Jordan-Long Beach) led the White team to an easy victory.

Varner drained 6 threes en route to a 22-point performance while Tyler had 5 threes and finished with 19 points. Tyler also had 9 rebounds and 3 assists for the winners, who led 46-29 at halftime and were never seriously threatened after beginning the game on a 26-13 run.

Nate Bullock (Harvard-Westlake) just missed a double-double with 11 points and 8 rebounds for the White team, and Brandon Woods (Dominguez) had a solid game as well with 10 points and 5 assists. Ervin Ware (Gahr) had 5 points, 5 assists and 6 steals.

For the Black team, Keith Shamburger (La Verne Lutheran) was the only scorer to reach double figures; he had 11 points and also grabbed 9 rebounds. Mike Miller (Mira Costa) had 6 points but added a game-high 11 rebounds and a team-high 4 assists.

Top 20 Sophomores: White 83, Black 82

Tyler Lamb (Colony) drained a contested, leaning, bank-shot 3-pointer with 4.7 seconds left, was fouled on the play and made the free throw for a 4-point play to lift his team to a dramatic 1-point victory in the event's top game for sophomores.

Lamb finished with a game-high 25 points, and his game-winning shot brought his team back from the brink after the Black team had gone ahead, 82-79, on a putback basket by Jordan Salley (Bishop Amat) moments earlier.

The Black team held an 80-74 lead before a three by LaBradford Franklin (Vista Murrieta) and a jumper by Julian Benarouche (New Roads) cut the margin to a single point at 80-79. But after Salley's basket, it looked like the most Lamb's shot could do was tie the game and considering the difficulty of the shot even that seemed a faint hope.

This one was close from the beginning, with the Black team taking a 40-38 lead at halftime after a jumper at the buzzer by Chayson Williams (Dominguez). The White team began the second half on an 11-0 run to take a 9-point lead, but the Black team rallied and led by 6 at 60-54. The lead went back and forth the rest of the way until the Black team again built a 6-point lead at 80-74, setting the stage for the dramatic finish.

Lamb made 10 of 17 shots, including 4 threes, and had 4 steals for the winners. Deonta Burton (Cabrillo-Long Beach) had 15 points and 3 steals. Franklin also reached double figures in scoring with 10 points and dished out a game-high 7 assists.

For the Black team, Kyle Boswell (Edison) had 17 points to lead the team's scorers. Williams had a superb all-around game with 15 points, 10 rebounds and 6 assists. Jonathan Conley (Littlerock) had a strong game as well with 14 points and 6 boards. Eric Swoope (Harvard-Westlake) narrowly missed a double-double with 11 points and 9 rebounds.

Talk about it in the Message Boards

We've selected a Player of the Game from each team for each of the eight showcase games. And we've also selected an all-star team for each class year, including an honorable mention list (listed alphabetically). To be eligible for all-star status, the player must have played in the Top 20 game but players from the Top 40 game were eligible for Honorable Mention status.

While the statistics and player ratings were the major factors in making these choices, we also considered more subjective factors such as the players' impact on the game. Players are listed by position, but we were pretty flexible with positions so that the top players were recognized.

In two cases, the Player of the Game decisions were just tough difficult, so we chose Players of the Game. In the Freshman Top 20 Game, Austin McBroom and C.J. Cooper played so well together, and ended up with similar stats, so they shared the honors for the White team. And in the Junior Top 40 Game, Dominguez teammates Darryl Espy and Robert Mandingo didn't play much at the same time, but were equally impressive in their team's 51-point blowout win so they shared the honors for the Black team.
