

Colleges with Musical Theatre Programs

Here is the short list from the best people I know

(one of whom just sent her own daughter off to pursue a BFA in Musical Theatre @ Hofstra)

- University of Northern Colorado, Greeley, CO
- Cal State Fullerton has an amazing musical theater program
- Ithaca College, Ithaca NY
- Hofstra University, Hempstead, Long Island, NY
- NYU-Tisch
- Boston University
- UC Irvine

From Janie Scott:

Check out the BFA in Musical Theatre at Millikin University in Decatur, IL . It's quite complete.

The only concerns I have about Boston Conservatory are the larger numbers and the fact that some students do not get as many opportunities as others.

Cincinnati Conservatory of Music also offers a good program. Many performers have come out of that program.

But many outstanding performers come out of smaller, less highly visible programs and are on the boards.
