THE 2011-2020 DECADE

By Jim Taylor

PREFACE

The Woodstock Navy Vets Junior Hockey Club has had a storied successful history since being founded by Sam Keeping in 1966.

The team was bought and rebranded the Renegades in 2007 in an effort to save it from folding amidst financial woes as well as tough on-ice times and re-build the once proud franchise.

The team was bought again in 2010 and plans put in place for a “Re-Birth of the Navy Vets”.

This is my personal compilation of the Navy Vets story during my involvement over the last decade since the team was re-born as the Navy Vets for the 2010-11 season.

It begins with a brief history of the franchise and then details each of the last 10 years during the climb back to the recent successes it has enjoyed.

CREDITS

While the information for this past decade comes from my own files as league statistician and team volunteer since 2008, the historical information and the photos contained here came to me from other sources.

Vets alumni Cam Roberts and Gene McLaren provided information from the early years, while Dean Vollmershausen who was statistician and executive member during the glory years of the 1990s and early 2000s provided his records from that era.

Photos have been provided by our team photographers Bill Polzin and Scott Knox along with some earlier decade photos from Michele Gilmar.

CHAPTER 1

A BRIEF HISTORY

BIRTH OF THE FRANCHISE

The Woodstock Navy-Vets were founded by Sam Keeping and an executive committee in 1966 when they were granted a Junior C franchise by the OHA to begin play for the 1966-67 season in the Intercounty Junior C Hockey League that included the Ingersoll Marlands, Paris Mounties, Dundas Merchants, Simcoe Golden Blades, and Brantford Chiefs.

They played their first game in Ingersoll on October 23, 1966 and rolled over the Marlands 10-2 with Fred Slater scoring 5 goals and 2 assists. Don Izzard Sr was the coach and Gary Pooley the captain.

The team had a very successful inaugural season finishing in second place during the regular season, and after eliminating Ingersoll in 5 games in the first round of the playoffs went on to defeat regular season champion Dundas in a 7-game showdown in the finals to win the Intercounty league title.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

Ted Power, a veteran star of OHA Sr hockey, took over from Don Izzard Sr. as the Navy Vets coach for the 1968-69 season. Under his guidance the Vets won the Intercounty regular season title. After going down 2-0 in the first round of the playoffs to Ingersoll they stormed back to win the next 4 games to take the series and advance to the league finals against Dundas where they easily won their second league title in just three years of existence.

They then defeated Dresden in the OHA quarterfinals before beating perennial power New Hamburg Hahns in 5 games in the OHA semifinals to advance to the provincial finals against Oakville.

The teams battled even thru the first 6 games of the provincial final forcing a deciding seventh game at a packed Perry Street Arena. Captain Gene McLaren scored twice including the eventual winner with under 9 minutes left in the game as the Navy Vets won their first Clarence Schmalz Cup as OHA Junior C Champions. The crowd rushed the ice and then spilled into the city streets after the game to celebrate and the team rode a firetruck thru the streets in a victory parade.

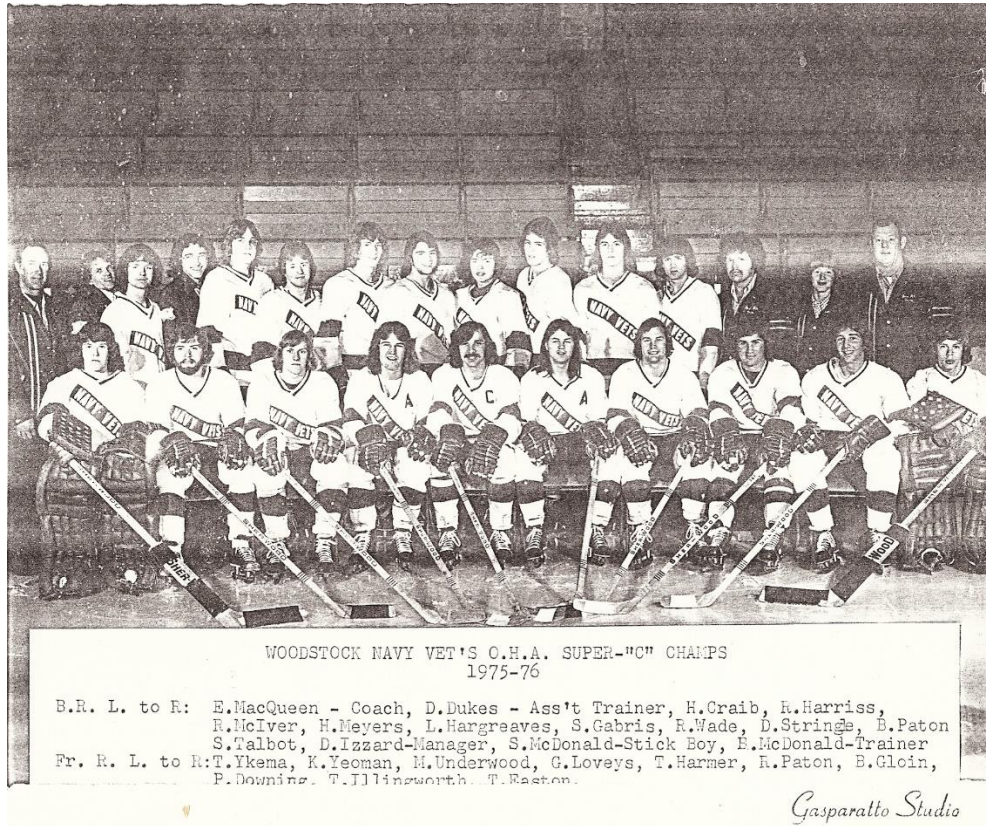

The stars of those early teams were Scott Seagrist, Don Carter, Gene McLaren, Brian Shelton, Don Jones, Pat Sobeski, and Ken Kitching. Both Carter and Seagrist had moved up to play Junior A after that initial season but returned to their hometown Vets for the run to the championship. Those teams were led by coach Ted Power and manager Ken Gregory.

THE "SUPER" YEARS

In the early 1970s the OHA formed a "Super C" playdowns between 7 teams deemed to be from centres too small for Junior B but too large for Junior C – Barrie, Oakville, London, Woodstock, Kitchener, Owen Sound, and Brantford. The Navy Vets were a juggernaut and proved to be the class of this group losing to Barrie in the final in 1970 before winning the George S. Dudley Trophy as OHA Super C Champions in 1971, 1973, 1974, 1975 and 1976 (there was no competition in 1972). Those powerhouse teams included Ted Long, Mike Underwood, John and Ken Yeoman, Ron and Brian Paton, Ted Ykema, and Tom Harmer under coach Ed MacQueen and manager Don Izzard Jr.

SUCCESSFUL FIRST DECADE

The Navy Vets won 2 Intercounty League titles, 1 Central League title, 5 OHA Super C titles, and 1 OHA Junior C title in those first 10 years.

JUNIOR B

In 1976–77 the Navy Vets became a charter member of the new Southwestern Junior B Hockey League along with the London Diamonds, St. Thomas Colonels, Tillsonburg Mavericks, Simcoe Jets, and Brantford Penguins. The 1978 team featured future NHL star Bernie Nichols. The SWJBHL folded after two seasons and the Navy Vets returned to Junior C for the 1978–79 season joining the West Division of the Niagara & District Junior C Hockey League which included Hagersville, Ancaster, and Flamborough.

THE GLORY YEARS

Over the next 25 years the Navy Vets had tremendous success ... winning 9 Niagara West Division Regular Season titles, 8 Niagara West Division Playoff titles, 5 Niagara League Playoff titles, losing the 1984 OHA final, and appearing in 4 OHA semifinal series with the last time being a memorable one against Essex that drew over 2000 fans at each of the 2 games in the new complex in 2002.

Those great teams were led by coaches Fred Murphy and Brian Paton under manager Don Brown in the 1980s and then after a stint as coach in the late 1980s John Jensen became manager and with coaches Dave Bogart in the 1990s and Scott Brooks in the 2000s led a team record string of 11 straight .500 plus seasons with 5 division titles and 4 Schmalz Cup Playdowns appearances.

Some of the very best to play for the Vets came from this era. The 1980s included among many others John Calic, Shawn Gardhouse, Kevin Jackson, Kevin Cassells, Brad Remington, Damion Racicot, and Terry Whalen. The 1990s had Jamie McLellan, Tim Pinder, Ron Nadalin, Dan Morris, Jason Rupert, Brandon Murphy, Mike Yeoman, Jason Broadhurst, Bill Ebel, Dean Sorenson, Drew Campbell, Jeremy Demarest, and Mike Pullen. In the early 2000s there was Brandon Aharan, Mike Matika, Taylor Winkler, Trevor Reynolds, Scott Roode, Chad Paton, Chris Corriveau, and Matt Carey.

THE TURBULENT YEARS

Instability surrounded the team over the next 5 seasons ... missing the playoffs for only the second time in their Junior C history, were eliminated in 1st Round of Playoffs once, and made an appearance in the division finals only once in 2007. The team was being run by Steve Barber and Roy Leggat and were in danger of folding.

THE RENEGADES

Bill McLeod took over the team in 2007 and renamed the team the Renegades for liability reasons and attempted to rebuild the team with mixed results on the ice and dwindling fan support over the next 3 seasons.

Despite the rough waters during this era the Vets had stars – Chris Lee, Alex Gegeny, Adam Wallace, Brandon Schell, Devon Young, Cole Maher, Mike Brilhante, Craig Thomson, Jordan Minello, Travis Horvath, and Justin Pottruff.

CHAPTER 2

THE RE-BIRTH

RETURN OF THE NAVY VETS

Darren DeDobbelaer, who was the president and general manager of the Simcoe Storm, took over the Navy Vets in 2010. The OHA approved DeDobbelaer's sponsorship of the Navy Vets, but under the condition he didn't hold any official administrative position and no players would be transferred between the two teams. The move effectively left the Navy Vets without an official owner in the traditional sense of a hands-on person at every game, but kept the team afloat.

DeDobbelaer brought in Jeff Morrison to run the team. The first order of business was to return the team to its roots by bringing back the Navy Vets name and logo in time for the 2010-11 season.

Despite the off-ice effort to keep the team going, the team struggled badly on the ice and endured the worst 3 seasons in team history, winning only 21 of 110 games and finishing in last place in the division all 3 seasons.

COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION

CHANGE TO LOCALLY-RUN COMMUNITY ORGANIZATION

A new group, made up of nine board of directors all from Woodstock, formed a not-for-profit organization and took over the team in April 2013 with the aim to find the success the Navy Vets once had following the worst 3-year span in team history.

“We used to be a pillar of excellence in the community and the Navy Vets were always held with a high regard,” said new team president and director of sponsorship and advertising Devon Young.

Young had plenty of experience with the team, having played for the Renegades for 2 seasons before becoming captain of the Navy Vets for 2 seasons after the team returned to its origins. He became Assistant Coach for the 2012-13 season after graduating.

THE NEW BOARD OF DIRECTORS (2013-14)

The Navy Vets became a member of the newly formed Midwestern Junior C Hockey League due to the OHA realignment of Junior C & D teams ... along with fellow Niagara West Division foes Norwich, Paris, and New Hamburg, as well as former Junior D teams Ayr, Burford, Delhi, and Tavistock.

FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT

PROMISING DECADE

The Navy Vets run with over 17 wins in each of the last 6 seasons was their best such streak since they won over 18 wins in 10 straight seasons from 1993-2002.

The decade included their Franchise 50th Anniversary celebration in 2015-16, one of the best seasons in team history with 30 wins in 2017-18, and the 50th Anniversary celebration for the 1969 OHA Championship team in 2019.

There were 3 players who played over 200 games – Cam Leslie, Justin Elms, and Chris Nauts.

Kyle Walker emerged as one of the best Navy Vets of all-time – leading the team in scoring and named team MVP all 3 seasons, captain of the 2019-20 team, and winning numerous league honours including being named a forward on the Annual All-Star Team in each of the past 3 seasons.

LOOKING FORWARD

The entire 2020-21 PJHL season was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, meaning the new 2021-22 season team will look entirely different ... but with the same big hopes !!!

The Vets lost some key veterans including star forward and captain Kyle Walker as well as 3 members of their defence corp in Reade MacInnis, Chris Thompson and Noah Burns all due to overage following the 2019-20 season. Defenceman Nick Billeci moved up to the next level signing with Listowel of the GOJHL. The cancellation of the 2020-21 season also wiped out five other player's last year of eligibility – Jacob Rooke, Kurtis Christo, Trent Lamarche, Max Racicot, and Quinton Stronach. Some other potential returnees moved on with other plans during the year off.

They hired Matt Fidlin in the summer of 2020 to lead the team as GM into the next decade, hoping to build on their recent successes. He comes with a wealth of Junior B GM & scouting experience during the past 10 seasons with both Kitchener Dutchmen and Waterloo Siskins of the GOJHL Midwestern Conference ... including a 2019 Sutherland Cup championship with the Siskins.

The team made some key signings over the summer/fall of 2020 and winter/spring of 2021 to start the rebuild of the team that lost at least 6 top forwards and 4 defencemen following the successful 2019-20 season. Forward Gabe Costantini returned after 1 season in Brantford ... while they also added 3 veteran forwards Tillsonburg native Griffin Sinden from St. Marys Lincolns, Christian Pelley from Brampton Bombers, and Woodstock native Kyle Baker also from Cambridge RedHawks, as well as veteran defencemen Patrick Klazer from Milton of OJHL and Ben Feijo from Brantford of GOJHL. They also signed forward Cam Bower who played last season with Ayr.

Returnees include defencemen Drew Mullett and Liam Munro, as well as forwards Drew Woods, Eric Tuori and Lakin Hendry. The Vets will be strong in net with both goalies returning, veteran overager Keaghan Brett and Graeme Noye who had a strong rookie season with the Vets.

Rookies who made the starting roster for the new season included forwards Mack Easter and Braeden Nelson both from Burlington, Jonah Jackseit from Mississauga, Sam Barry from Guelph, Lucas White from Woodstock, and OHL draft pick Nolan Brett from Beachville, as well as Woodstock defencemen Jordan Thomson and Brady Collins.
