I hope we have a good turnout on this date.

I hope everyone got their schedule in the mail. If not, call me, I ran extras.

May 2005

Year in Revue

Twelve members and two guests attended the annual Christmas Party on Dec. 20 and viewed mini slide shows which included scenes of the Utica tornado damage, California, Bishop's Hill, Siberia, and Naples, Fla. Greg Stein again presented his special Christmas program set to music. On Jan. 17 various interpretations of "glamour" were discussed by the ten members present. The Feb. 7 meeting featured photos taken at or near a dam site. Eleven members and one guest were present. On Feb 21 eight members (and one future member - please welcome Tim Bush) met to discuss the then upcoming CICCA Individual Salon to be held at Streator. Jobs were assigned to all those present and even some who were not. On Mar. 7 ten members and two guests shared their childhood memories (which seemed to always include chickens) and photos of children at play. On Mar. 21 the club viewed a narrated program of top photos taken by members of the Photographic Society of America. Twelve members and two guests were present. Apr. 4 was the much looked forward to annual Scavenger Hunt by Earl Gerding. Two teams of four and one team of three completed the life story of James Smith by filling in the blanks with photos. Earl again tricked all the teams - nobody figured out that there were no school buses running in town in 1940. Since no team filled all the blanks correctly, the team with the best photos consisted of Linda Vandemark, Lin Carr and Tim Bush. On Apr. 18 fourteen members and one guest helped label and arrange the slide and photo entries in preparation for the CICCA Salon. On the evening of Apr. 29 eleven members helped prepare the meeting room. Apr. 30 was the BIG day. A huge thank you to the thirteen members who gave up their Saturday to help run the Annual CICCA Individual Salon and make it a success. The event started promptly at 9 a.m. and was over by 3 p.m. with no major and very few minor mishaps. Ribbons awarded to club members were as follows: Curtis Larsen 4-Acc & 1-Honor in Commercial Prints, 2-Acc in Nature Slides, 1-Acc in Pictorial Slides, 1-Acc & Best of Show in Contemporary Slides; Tom Williams 3-Acc & 1-Honor in Color Prints; Earl Gerding 2-Honor in Pictorial Slides; Sheila Kuhlemeyer 1-Acc in Color Prints; Hal Kuhlemeyer 1-Acc in Color Prints; Lin Carr 1-Acc in Nature Slides; Linda Vandemark 1-Acc in Pictorial Slides. Congratulations to all the ribbon winners!

Annual Banquet

Monday, Apr. 30, will once again be our Annual Dinner and Travelogue beginning at 7 p.m. Members from the Streator area are requested to bring a scrumptious dessert while those living outside Streator are to provide a healthful vegetable or side dish. Sliced beef, buns and the fixings will be provided by Louis Burcar, while Greg Stein will once again brew one of his famous punches. Don't forget to bring your own plates and silverware. This year's program will be a combination of two trips taken by Virginia Grimes of the Sandwich Photographic Society to the Patagonia region of South America - famous for its stunning vistas of craggy snow capped mountains. As always, guests are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Please Note: Last minute entries for the Spring 4-Club Interclub will be accepted this night. Each individual may enter up to 8 prints and 8 slides. The subject is "churches" and must be taken after May 1, 2004.

The Planning Meeting for the 2005-2006 Camera Club Season will take place Monday, June 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the Bruce Township Hall.
