

Obituary

Edna "Faye" Coleman was born on July 16, 1956 to the union of Ed and Ruby Coleman in Winnsboro, Louisiana. The family moved to Seattle, Washington, in 1967. Edna attended Franklin High School and worked as a nurse in adult care facilities. She served as a beloved and effective counselor at the Southwest Recovery Center, while continuing her education at Highline Community College.

Spirited and fun-loving, Edna had a gift for hospitality and especially enjoyed summertime barbecues. Her children and grandchildren received a special measure of her devotion and she treasured high hopes for their education and development. She confronted and overcame many significant challenges and kept her dreams alive to the end.

She was preceded in death by her father, Ed Coleman, and a brother, Robert "Beau" Coleman. She leaves to mourn her passing her mother, Ruby Coleman; three children, Calvin Stelly, Jr., Saudia Stelly and Demekia Palmer; six sisters and three brothers, Ruthie Coleman, Ruby Coleman, Lela Coleman, Deborah Coleman, Barbara Hubberb, Sharon Coleman, Willie Coleman, Edward Coleman and Michael Coleman; three grandchildren, Deshawn, Rayjaun and Cornia Stelly; aunts Ruth Turner, Ollie Mae Bass and JoLee Washington, all of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Annie Belle Washington and uncles Julius Cameron of Winnsboro, Louisiana and John Coleman of Seattle, Washington; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who loved her and will deeply miss her.

We love you and you will always be in our hearts.

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28
