

OBITUARIES

Charles Eldon Bailey

Services for Charles Eldon Bailey of Jayess are today, May 10, at 2 p.m. at Wilson Funeral Home Chapel with burial in The Providence Cemetery.

Mr. Bailey, 89, died May 8, 1993, at Whispering Pines Hospice Center in Jackson. He was born in Copiah County on March 23, 1904, to Elijah and Katie Smith Bailey, who preceded him in death. He was a retired cattleman and was retired from Humble Oil Company. He was a member of Providence Baptist Church.

Survivors are his wife, Vondell Summers Bailey of Jayess; two sons, Charles E. Bailey Jr. and Paul Bailey, both of Jackson; a daughter, Muriel Malone of Jackson; a sister, Hattie Bell Furnage of Jackson; eight grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Lucretia Barnes

Services for Lucretia Barnes of Brookhaven are May 12 at 11 a.m. at Avery Chapel A.M.E. Church with burial in Hillcrest Cemetery in Brookhaven.

Mrs. Barnes, 73, died May 7, 1993, at King's Daughters Hospital. She was born in Lincoln County on Dec. 6, 1919, to Eugene Harris and M.L. Markham, who preceded her in death. She was a high school graduate and a homemaker and a member of Avery Chapel A.M.E. Church. She was a member of the Eastern Star.

Survivors are a son, Robert Barnes Jr. of Brookhaven; three sisters, Mary

Johnson of Brookhaven, Madell Woodard of Bude and Lucille Baker of Chicago, Ill.; two grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, a brother and a sister.

Tyler Funeral Home is in charge.

J.W. Taylor

Arrangements, under the direction of Williams' Mortuary, were incomplete at press time for J.W. Taylor of

Attention SENIOR C

Trustmark Na

Invites Y

PICK

Tuesday, M

4:30 p

Exchange C

Entertainment: The
Speaker: Felder Rus