~ Life's Reflection ~

Ms. Orera LaDean "Deana" Causey was born September 26, 1948, to the union of Andrea Causey and Jean Giles Causey in Kansas City, Kansas. She was preceded in death by loving parents, two sisters and a brother.

She attended the local elementary schools and graduated from Lincoln High School in 1966. LaDean enjoyed singing and traveling with the Lincoln High School Chorus under the direction of Rev. Williams. After high school she received further training from various vocational centers.

Those who really knew "Deana" knew she had a good appetite for good food and a memory for detail. She had an interesting life. One of her jobs after graduating was working at the local SMACKS where she really liked working the assembly line. She was also employed at Swope Ridge Nursing Home and Martin Luther King Hospital where she was honored as an exemplary employee.

LaDean accepted Christ into her life at an early age and was baptized at the Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church. There she served on the Junior Usher Board, and was a member of the Sunday School and Baptist Training Union. "Deana" had the pleasure of attending both State and National Baptist Conventions. She transferred her membership to Paseo Baptist Church, where she served on the Senior Usher Board and was a member of the Dorcas Mission Circle. She formed many friendships and enjoyed many visits and countless phone conversations with her mission sisters. Her parents instilled in her a love for missionary work. She visited and ministered in nursing homes. LaDean had a special love for the elderly and young children.

Orera LaDean Causey departed this life on Saturday, January 26, 2008, at Research Medical Center in Kansas City, Missouri.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three brothers, Matthew Beavers (Ollie) of Kansas City, Missouri, Carter J. Beavers (Sarah) of Camden, Arkansas and Lee Wall Beavers of Kansas City, Missouri; one sister, Melaine R. Jones (Clifford) of Kansas City, Missouri; a favorite cousin, James Earl Diggs (Fannie) of Brookhaven, Mississippi and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
