

Obituary

Mrs. Brunetta C. Essix was born on March 24, 1935 to Mattie Lee Baker, (deceased), and Henry W. Coleman, Sr. (deceased). She departed this life on September 25, 2009 in Clinton, MS.

Brunetta received her formal education from Campbell College and Jackson State University. She was employed with Jackson Public Schools for 34 years until she retired in 1996. She was a faithful member of Pearl Street A.M.E. Church where she was the children's choir director. She later joined the Temple of Yah under the leadership of Minister Bobby Dixon. She remained a faithful, dedicated member and the Temple pianist.

She was married to Mr. Charles Essix, Jr. (deceased), and during this union two children were born. She leaves her two children, Winfred K. Essix and Wangela K. Brown, eight grandchildren: Yakira, Danielle, and Dahyana (Winfred); Undra, Benyahmen, Kaleel, Mablkee, and Sabmablah (Wangela); one brother, Henry Coleman, Jr., three sisters, Allie M. Sims, Clara Butts, and Ethel Lee; a stepmother, Mrs. Ethel, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
