

Obituary

Sterling Eugene Culver departed this life on May 5, 1998, at the Pinehaven Nursing Home, Clinton, Mississippi. He was born on August 25, 1922 in Hinds County to the late Grover Cleveland Culver and Kathleen Culver and was the 3rd child of four children. He completed his early education in Chicago, Illinois and Brookhaven and High School in Brookhaven, Mississippi. He received a degree in Photography at Alcorn A&M College, Lorman, Mississippi and a degree in Mechanical Arts at Jackson State College, Jackson, Mississippi.

Sterling confessed Christ and joined Kynett Methodist Church, Brookhaven, Mississippi, where he served faithfully. His hobbies were Chess, Reading, Bible Study, Fishing, Piano, and photography. He was a retired Home builder/Remodeler, Photographer.

He was married to Dorothy Andrews of which to this happy union, was one son, Kenneth Ray Culver.

He was proceeded in death by his parents, one brother, John Culver and one sister, Claudine Aultmann.

Sterling leaves to cherish his memories...

> Son, Kenneth Ray Culver & Daughter-In-Law, Velma Culver

Grandchildren: Keishela and Kindrela

> Daughter, Rose Mary Lenoir Love

Grandchildren: Sherika, Larry, Rodney, and Lavon

> Sister, Lyntine Lenoir and Brother-in-Law, Lamar Lenoir

> Sister-in-Law, Margie Culver

> A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.